PM Barrow: "Bring it On!"

Restoring Honour to our National Flag!

PM Dean Barrow at Press Conference on Wednesday

he announcement first came in a brief Press Release on Monday June 10, which read, "The Ministry of Finance announces that the Management Services Agreement between the Government of Belize and Belize International Services Limited, to manage the International Business Companies Registry (IBC) and the International Merchant Marine Registry of Belize (IMMARBE) comes to an end, today, 10 June 2013. Accordingly, the Government of Belize will assume control of the two Registries with effect from tomorrow, 11 June 2013."

The release promised that the Prime Minister would give a full briefing on the matter on Wednesday, June 12; and he did.

At his Press Conference, the Prime Minister recounted that a master agreement was first signed on June 11, 1993, only days before the June 30th snap elections called by then Prime Minister George Price; a ten year agreement wih Belize International Services Limited which managed IMMARBE and the IBC Registry with the option to renew for another ten years. When that ten years was about to expire in 2003, the Government's legal Counsel, Mr. Gian Ghandi, advised in writing to BISL that because of a fundamental change of circumstances, they could no longer exercise the option to renew for another ten years.

PM Barrow explained that Ghandi's letter was written after he had advised Ralph Fonseca and Said Musa of the legal position that he took. But Musa, he said, turned right around and told BISL it could ignore Ghandi's letter and simply continue to operate the agreement, and that the Government of the day would in effect treat BISL's exercise of the option to renew as valid. And so, things continued as normal until March of 2005. On March 24, 2005, PM Barrow said, it turns out that a secret agreement was signed between BISL and the then Prime Minster, Said Musa, and the then Attorney General, Francis Fonseca, who is now the Leader of the Opposition PUP. That agreement, he said, retroactively formalized the 2003 extension, and effectively lengthened the life of the agreement beyond the 10 year extension up to 11th of June 2020 for a consideration of $1.5 million.

From the Desk of the Chairman

"The More Things Change..."

Delroy Cuthkelvin Chairman, Editorial Board

our edition of last week, in an article titled, "The Case of the Crawl Caye Project - a Lesson in Trans-Thoroughness parency, Thoughtfulness", and we had just reiterated the stark difference between the Government of Prime Minister Dean Barrow and the administration that preceded it, led by former Prime Minister Said Musa, with regards to their respective modus operandi in agreements entering and undertakings that have far-reaching implications for the Nation and its People.

We had just recounted the fact that, in contrast to the open, cautious and methodical manner in which the Barrow Administration handled such matters, the Musa Administration was one that, besides being hasty and reckless, was characterized by serial style secrecy.

As if we needed one more reminder of this, news broke this week of yet another secret agreement signed by the same two who endorsed the infamous Accommodation Agreement, Musa and his former Attorney General, Francis Fonseca. This one was for the purported 'extension of an extension' of a contract for a company called Belize International Services to manage the International Companies Registry (IBC) and the International Merchant Marine Registry of Belize (IMMARBE).

Again, as in the case of the Accommodation Agreement, it turns out, the biggest beneficiary of the deal is that multi-billionaire who appeared to have owned Musa and his Government.

And, again, that beneficiary, A.K.A, the Predator, as is known to be his wont, starts issuing threats of lawsuits that he says could cost the Government and People of Belize Millions more in litigation.

Thankfully, it is once again Mr. Barrow and the United Democratic Party Government that have made the courageous decision to shine light upon the unpatriotic pact that was conceived in darkness; and to extricate the Nation and People of Belize from the costly and dishonorable deal.

Musa is no longer the Leader of his Party. That position is now held by his former Attorney General who co-signed the newly uncovered deal, just as he did the Accommodation Agreement. Indeed, as the French saying goes, in so very many ways, "the more things change the more they remain the same".

Said Musa and Francis Fonseca

PM Barrow said nobody was aware of the existence of that agreement of March 24th, 2005 that Musa and Francis Fonseca signed. And, as far as can be established, the matter was never brought to Cabinet nor the National Assembly, he said.

"How on earth could the then Prime Minister and the then Attorney General have purported to extend their agreement by way of counter signing a letter without disclosing to cabinet, without getting any permission from the National Assembly, without going to the Contractor General, without putting it out to tender. How on earth could that have been done, and why was it kept secret, except that the principals knew what they were doing was absolutely wrong?"

Hence, the position of PM Barrow and his Government is that because the agreement was a secret document, it is invalid, and must be ignored. "We, the current administration, wrote on the 6th of May of this year to BISL saying that on the face of the agreement that they had, their period of control of the Registry expires on June 10, 2013. BISL then produced this secret agreement of 24th March, 2005. Well, you can imagine how shocked we were. We checked to see whether there was any copy of that agreement anywhere in any file in Belmopan, and we came up with a big fat zero." BISL furnished government with a copy, he said, but that hardly mattered.

"In so far as that secret agreement purported to extend the duration of the original 1993 agreement beyond 2013, it was wholly invalid, as it was patently contrary to several of the applicable laws, including but not limited to the Finance and Audit Act, the Financial orders, the Stores Orders and the Control of Expenditure Handbook," PM Barrow said. "As a result of that advice, we wrote to BISL in a letter dated June 4th, 2013 rejecting this secret document of 24th March, 2005 and reiterating our position that the agreement expired on the 10th June, 2013."

PM Barrow explained that the opportunity to take back control of IMMAR-BE, with the expiration of the agreement, is one that must be seized upon as a matter not only of necessity, but urgency:

"Where IMMARBE is concerned, this problem with the EU has become acute, and we're at a point where we are in danger of having our exports to the European stopped. When that EU decision came out a number especially of the principals in the aquaculture industry made representation to government

Ontario's only run in the game came in the 5th Inning and was scored by Isha Gardiner to make it a 6-1 score, which is how the game ended. The 6 runs for Esperanza came from Shamira "Shampoo" Wade, Patricia Spain (First Inning), Indira Spain, Melinda Blancaneaux, Denise Gordon and Shamira Wade (Third Inning).

and asked us what we intended to do because their shrimp exports in particular were in jeopardy of being banned by the EU.

We will put in place measures to regulate and control the activities of the IMMARBE fishing fleet. We are perfectly conscious of the fact that if those measures don't work, we may, as a last resort, have to de-register the fishing fleet. We're not going to run any joke. We're not playing games. The fact of our exports to the EU having to be protected at all costs means that if we have to de-register the fishing fleet or particularly those fishing in the EU zone, then we will do so only as a last resort; but people need to know about our seriousness. We intend to reimburse BISL the $1.5 Million that they say they paid in consideration to the secret agreement."

In closing, the PM reiterated, "I don't care. I see them making threats about how many millions of dollars they are going to sue for. When you look at what was collected over the last few years, the figure they are talking about is outrageous and laughable.

But in any event that they will seek legal recourse, that is their right - and we say 'Bring It On' because there is no way in the World that we will allow this abuse to continue so as to endanger the Economy of this Country."

hatred, many prefer to be silent. Those who willfully oppose God's truth may also seem intimidating, but knowing that God Himself upholds His truth should encourage us to partner with Him in its defense. We must realize that the very ones who intensely oppose truth are the ones who need it the most and there-

Nineveh was a large city with tens of thousands of citizens bound for hell. As a matter of fact, Jonah was convinced that they deserved God's punishment because of their wickedness and hatred of Jonah's people, the Israelites. So he ran away in another direction until God manipulated the forces of nature to let

"Seeing that presently, truth seems to anger many and has become synonymous to speaking hatred, many prefer to be silent. Those who willfully oppose God's truth may also seem intimidating, but knowing that God Himself upholds His truth should encourage us to partner with Him in its defense... Ruthless times of persecution threateningly loom on the horizon, yet none of us has shed his blood in our defense of God's truth, as our brothers and sisters have done in other parts of the world. But in spite of what we experience now and what lies ahead, we dare to speak, even when we'd rather not, for truth has never lost a battle and it never will."

fore, in our defense we need to be propelled by love for our fellowmen and by the desire to remove the deception that comes from tttthe Father of lies, Satan himself (John 8:44).

God is the author of truth and all truth is His truth. If we believe in Him, we must be convinced that He will never deceive anyone into thinking that they are who they were not created to be. Fear and the sense of hopelessness in whether we can be convincing enough to turn people away from falsehood, are real human issues that may discourage us from declaring truth, even though we are commissioned by God to do so.

The prophet Jonah of the Old Testament, personally commissioned by God, was also hesitant to speak God's truth to the Ninevites, although Jonah realize that He loves everyone, including sinners and His desire is for all to come to repentance.

We may also feel that those who deny God's truth and consider us as enemies are deserving of the judgment of God. Or we may stay out of harms way and so avoid confrontation or contamination and allow others to remain ignorant of truth and the knowledge of the love of God. But to avoid those who are in need of God's love and mercy, is to forget that we were also deserving of God's judgment until someone was used by God to convince us of our need. We would prefer not to wait for God's discipline to force us out of hiding. God has his methods of single-handedly convincing others to accept His truth, as in the experience of Saul on the Damascus road (Acts 9:1-9), but He prefers to use us as instruments.

Truth will be uncomfortable for those that we are trying to save but they will soon come to the realization that it is better to be hurt with truth than to be comforted with a lie. Although we knew from the Scriptures that our faith and endurance would be tested, even more so as the end of the world draws near, we probably never imagined that our generation would have been witnesses to this blatant attack on truth in our corner of the globe. In our country, though our voices seem to be drowned by the barely audible demands of those who hate truth, we are still "free" to do so.

Ruthless times of persecution threatening-ly loom on the horizon, yet none of us has shed his blood in our defense of God's truth, as our brothers and sisters have done in other parts of the world. But in spite of what we experience now and what lies ahead, we dare to speak, even when we'd rather not, for truth has never lost a battle and it never will.

Ministry of Energy, Science, Technology, and Public Utilities Responds to Oceana

Audrey Matura Sheppard Local Vice President of Oceana

The Ministry of Energy, Science and Technology and Public Utilities notes with regret a recent press release by Oceana in which it persists in putting its spin on the judgment delivered on April 16th, 2013 by Justice Legall concerning certain oil exploration contracts awarded by the previous government. In that judgment, His Lordship made certain declarations against the Ministry but not against the oil companies. Most importantly, the Judge specifically refused to quash the oil exploration contracts. The legal consequences that follow from what the Judge ordered as well as what he refused to order are purely a legal issue. For that reason, the Ministry has obtained and has acted upon legal advice from one of the nation's most respected attorneys at law, which states in the clearest possible terms that the effect of the Judge's refusal to quash or terminate the contracts is to leave them fully enforceable by the oil companies. That advice emphasized that no order or judgment was made against any oil company, none of which was even a party in the court case. This point was fully made by the Ministry in its written and oral arguments to the Honourable Chief Justice on its recent application to stay the effect of Justice Legall's judgment. Consistent with the legal advice received, the Ministry is obliged to treat the contracts as binding and enforceable against the country of Belize by the oil companies. It would take the legal authority of a judgment of the Court, clearly expressed to be binding and enforceable against the oil companies, to quash or cancel the contracts. Only such a judgment can take away the contractual rights awarded to the oil companies. The Ministry repeats: there is no such judgment. For that reason, the Ministry, in issuing maps showing oil exploration areas held by the various oil companies, had no choice but to recognize the fact that Princess Petroleum Belize Limited and Providence Belize Energy Limited oil companies continue to hold these exploration areas given to them by contract.

The Ministry respects the right of Oceana and others to espouse their views on issues concerning oil exploration and production. However, it must reject as irresponsible the insistence on putting the spin on Justice Legall's judgment that it takes away the contractual rights of the oil companies.

The Ministry refuses to be driven into the reckless course for which Oceana is pushing, which could expose the country to claims by oil companies for hundreds of millions of US dollars in damages. At this very moment, St Lucia is defending a claim for US$560 million for cancelling an oil exploration licence to

Doctor Colin Young, CEO in the Ministry of Energy, Science, Technology and Public Utilities

Jack Grynberg's RSM Production Corporation, as a Google inquiry will show. The Ministry will take every care to avoid exposing Belize to such a claim.

The Ministry ends by pointing out that if Oceana honestly believed the spin it is putting on Justice Legall's judgment, that it cancelled the rights of the oil companies under the contracts, Oceana would long ago have applied to the courts to stop the continuing exploration activities the oil companies, or to compel the Ministry to stop them, or to find the Government to be in contempt of court.

Aerial Photograph of Crawl Caye

of you caught it, but last week in our story titled, "The Case of the Crawl Caye Project - a Lesson in Transparency, Thoughtfulness and Thoroughness", we mistakenly reproduced a photograph of Hunting Caye instead of Crawl Caye.

For that we sincerely apologize, although we will hasten to point out that the error on our part did not minimize in any way the principal point of our story, which is that the current government, unlike the one that preceded it, is an administration that thoughtfully and thoroughly considers pertinent issues and concerns before entering into agreements and undertakings that have far-reaching implications for the Nation and its People, and that it invariably conducts the entire process in a transparent manner.

And while we admittedly erred, we should be readily excused, we contend, for having mistakenly brought you that splendid aerial view of Hunting Caye, also in Southern Belize, which is no less precious an island than Crawl Caye.

Furthermore, in following up this week on the substance of the story, we get the opportunity to print for you, not one, but two photographs of the real Crawl Caye, hoping that in so doing, we make it up to you.

The Crawl Caye Project, of course, refers to a proposal by Norwegian Cruise Line to set up berthing facilities for cruise ships in Southern Belize. As we had noted, Prime Minister Dean Barrow had, from the start, indicated that any agreement to allow such a project would have to meet environmental approval, and that the Cabinet had set up an exploratory sub-committee to consider all aspects of the proposed project, and to determine the desirability, feasibility and practicability of it.

The Sub Committee is headed by Honorable Godwin Hulse who, as we also reported last week, had made himself available to the media for questioning on the matter even prior to meeting with key stakeholders in the tourism industry and representatives in relevant departments and agencies.

The most decisive meet-by Minister Godwin Hulse." In his interviews with Channel Seven News that evening, Hon. Godwin Hulse commented, "As I said the last time we spoke that the committee would meet and we did meet. There was a presentation by our technical side in response to the upgraded presentation made by NCL. They concluded that even that presentation was outside the parameters required to give the green light for a development for Crawl Caye. So Crawl Caye is off the table and we've informed NCL accordingly. That does not mean that we are not continuing to dialogue with the people. We must understand that this is a huge investment. NCL is a reputable company; it's a world-class cruise company, and any investment proposal to our country that could enhance jobs, enhance growth and create a better way for people, we can't ing took place on Monday, June 3, and the following day, the sub-committee brought its informed and considered determination and recommendation to Cabinet. Based on that, the Cabinet made the decision to turn down the proposal and issued a press release stating the following:

"Cabinet accepted the recommendation from a Technical Team working with Cabinet's Sub-committee, examining Norwegian Cruise Line's proposal for a Cruise Terminal, that Crawl Caye in the Southern Waters cannot be developed as a cruise terminal because of numerous environmental considerations. However, in an effort to stimulate employment and open up other economic benefits for Belizeans in the South, Cabinet did support Norwegian Cruise Line's request to search for an alternative site in Southern waters. Any new site and project proposal will be presented to the current Cabinet Sub-committee chaired just simple 'shush' away. So we have informed them of that. They have not completely withdrawn; we are continuing to talk, and we will see where we go from there."

When asked what was the position of Norweigian Cruise Lines now that the considered response by the government was a no-go, Hon. Godwin Hulse stated, "Well they will continue to look and see what is possible, but our view is that in any of these situations we should work with our people and work together. It's not a question that Belize is in a position to say to any investor, "Ok, bye-bye, that doesn't work". We have to sit down with them and formulate what possibly could be a win-win situation. There's a lot of talk in the South about Cruise Tourism, but there is no denial of Cruise Tourism, so let's find something that works."

The Prime Minister further elaborated, "NCL, I believe, is interested in looking at other possibilities in the South of Belize so I stress that we've not said a blanket 'No' to any potential development for Cruise Tourism in the South at all, but certainly it cannot, in terms of all the constraints, in terms of all the considerations articulated to us by the technical people, it cannot, will not work on Crawl Caye.

We do not accept that there can be any blanket prohibition on the development of Cruise Tourism in Southern Belize. I said last time that even with respect to Crawl Caye, the tour guide community in Placencia is strongly in support, and we believe that you can find any number of players in the Tourism Industry that would support some kind of cruise project in Southern Belize. So we will not say that the decision is a blanket prohibition. We will look at any proposal on a case by case basis.

I don't know how there was ever a thought that if a project takes place in the South that it would divert traffic from Belize City; that cannot be a concern because we made clear to NCL, even at the start of the discussion ,that if the project were ever to see the light of day, the site would be limited to hosting calls only from ships from NCL; no other line would be able to go there; so there was never any question of a conflict between the interests of the Belize City people and the people in the South."

Spurs Denied - Miami Wins Game 2

Balanced start, LeBron James' explosive finish of San Antonio Spurs evens NBA Finals for Miami Heat

By JOSEPH GOODMAN
The Miami Herald

he other guys evened the series. For much of Sunday's pivotal Game 2 of the NBA Finals, LeBron James was in a postseason trance unlike anything he has experienced since the 2011 Finals.

He finally snapped out of it, but by that time it didn't really matter. Mario Chalmers, Mike Miller and Ray Allen had already put the game away.

In perhaps the biggest game of his professional career, Chalmers led all scorers with 19 points in the Heat's 103-84 victory against the San Antonio Spurs at American Airlines Arena.

Tied 1-1, the best-of-7 series now shifts to Texas for three consecutive games before returning to Miami for Game 6 and Game 7, if necessary.

Thewaythisseriesisgoing, the maximum number of games for the series seems inevitable.

With the Heat's offense in disarray in the third quarter, Chalmers stepped in for a struggling James as the Heat's offensive catalyst. It was a bold move but not out of character for the Heat's starting point guard, who isknownforhiscocksureattitude.

Chalmers' three-point play gave Miami a 64-62 lead with 3:11 left in the third quarter. It sparked a rally that didn't really end until the final buzzer sounded. After Chalmers' play, the Heat outscored the Spurs 42-22.

"You can't teach that quality, the big-game guts,"

Heat coach Erik Spoelstra said of Chalmers' propensity for big plays in big games. "We have a lot of guys like that on this team. They feel the most alive when you should be feeling pressure."

All the talk entering Game 2 revolved around James' teammates doing more to help outtheirleader. Those players apparently were paying attention.

James finished with 17 points, a postseason low, but enjoyed watching the blowout from the bench in the final minutes all the same. He also had eight rebounds and seven assists.

The Heat was 10 of 19 from three-point range (52.6 percent) with Miller, Allen and Chalmers combining to go 8 of 12 from distance. Miller went 3 of 3 from three-point range for nine points, and Allen was 5 of 8 overall and 3 of 5 from three-point range for 13 points.

"That's why they're the defending champs," Spurs guard Tony Parker said.

Dwyane Wade, Miami Heat Bounce Back in Game 4 Against Spurs to Tie the Series

BY FRANK ISOLA / NEW YORK DAILY NEWS

SAN ANTONIO - June 13, 2013

LeBron James was going to deliver on his Game 4 guarantee, no question about it. He's simply too talented and too battle-tested to be held down this long.

But Game 4 was more than just redemption for James. It was Dwyane Wade living up to his reputation and Chris Bosh living up to the hype. It was Miami's celebrated Big Three, maligned after their no-show performance in Game 3, wresting back control of the NBA Finals with a collaborative effort for the ages.

"It was on our shoulders, honestly," James said. "When all of us are clicking at the same time we're very tough to beat."

James, Wade and Bosh combined for 85 points as the Heat defeated the San Antonio Spurs, 109-93, on Thursday night to even the series at 2-2. The victory assured Miami of LeBron James was dominant on both ends, but in many ways the night belonged to Wade, the two-time champion who had been limited due to chronic knee problems. Wade looked to be the picture of health on Thursday, with a lively, athletic, throwback performance: 32 points, six rebounds, four assists and six steals.

Dwyane Wade finally catches fire, finishing with 32 points as the Miami Heat even the series in Game Four of the NBA Finals at least one more home game, regardless of the outcome of Game 5 here on Sunday.

"We understood this game was a survival game," Miami coach Erik Spoelstra said. "All we're going to think about is the next game because that's enough on our plate."

The Heat had been embarrassed in Game 3, suffering a 36-point loss that put it in danger of falling behind 3-1 in the series. James assured anyone who would listen that he would play better and that everything was riding on his broad shoulders. Since he has already won a title, it wasn't exactly a legacy-saving moment but rather another example of the league MVP responding to a challenge, even if it was self-imposed.

On Thursday, James scored 33 points on 15-for-25 shooting with 11 rebounds while eclipsing 20 points for the first time in the series. In his previous three games, he had scored a total of 50 points.

"Before I came into the game I was confident," James said. "I was playing as hard as I could until the tank was empty. I was keeping my foot on the gas."

Spelling Bee in Belmopan

The Champion Comes from the South

First Place : Eriean Jang Sacred Heart, R.C, Stann Creek

Following two rounds of eliminations countrywide, 12 finalists participated in the exciting grand finale of the 2013 Coca-Cola National Spelling.

The competition, which began in February with the participation of 271 primary schools, culminated on June 7 at the UB Sports and Recreation Center in Belmopan.

A tie for the first and second place spots emerged at the end of the first eliminating reserve list round; the contest rules then allowed for the spell-off for third place to proceed, and it was Toledo's Hilda Saki of St. Benedict R.C. that emerged in the Fourth Round as the third place winner with the spelling of the words "fylfot" and "nappe." She received a $1,500 educational prize from Bowen & Bowen Ltd., parent company of Coca-Cola in Belize, and a tuition and book grant for one year from the Ministry of Education.

It was then back to the spell-off for the top two slots. These went to, for first place, national champion Eriean Jang of Sacred Heart RC in Stann Creek, with her winning word "baldachin." Second place was captured by Britney Rosalez of Caledonia RC, who fell with the word "schuss" after getting "phalanx" correct. Both first and second place winners received fully loaded Laptop computers from Bowen & Bowen Ltd., who also awarded a computer and printer to the winning school.

Third Place: Hilda Saki St. Benedict RC, Toledo

The Ministry provided a four-year tuition and book grant to Eriean Jang for her first place win, while Britney Rosalez received a two-year tuition and book grant. Caledonia RC also captured first place in the onsite banner competition, winning five cases of Coca-Cola products for the school, as well as a trophy and certificate.

For the 19th consecutive

year, Bowen & Bowen Ltd., parent company of Coca-Cola in Belize, and the Ministry of Education hosted this educational competition. CEO and President of Bowen &

Bowen Ltd., Michael Bowen, said in his welcome remarks that the stepped up level of the competition is a reflection of the expertise at the Ministry, with a key strategy of top spellers being their ability to incorporate knowledge of word origins into word attack skills. The 2013 theme for the Coca-Cola National Spelling Bee was "Keep Smiling and Spelling Belize."
