This Is The Beast Says Police

SAN IGNACIO, Cayo, Thursday, June 21, 2012:

San Ignacio Police say they are confident that they have arrested and laid the murder charge against the man who murdered 13-year old, Santa Elena resident, Jasmine Lowe.

J.Lowe was last seen alive 17 days ago on June 4. Her decomposing body was found two days later, on June 6, in the bushes on the side of a farm road less than a mile from her home.

As residents of San Ignacio,

Santa Elena and surrounding communities became aware of the formal charging of the accused, the crowd began to gather inside the Columbus Park, in front of the police station in San Ignacio from as early as 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning. They came in a show of support for the police and to express their displeasure about the crime situation in the community.

There was a gradual build up of the largely vociferous gathering which eventually swelled to almost a thousand as they chanted for justice and the lynching of the accused.

The situation climaxed at around 3:00 pm when the accused, Bert Denton Haylock Vasquez, 28, was whisked, under heavy police guard, from the downstairs police station to the upstairs Magistrate court with a few large stones coming from the gathering, miraculously no one was injured.

The visibly shaken accused appeared in the closed courtroom of Magistrate Linsbert Willis, sitting in for resident Magistrate Narda Morgan who is on a short vacation leave, where the single murder charge was read to him.

The charge, as read by Magistrate Willis, states: “For that you Bert Denton Haylock Vasquez, aka Bert Vasquez between the 4th and the 6th June 2012 at Santa Elena Town in the Cayo Judicial District, intentionally and by unlawful harm caused the death of Jasmine Lowe.”

No plea was taken as the matter is of an indictable nature. With murder being classified as a capital charge, no bail could be offered and the accused was remanded to the Belize Central Prison to be brought back to court on Tuesday, August 14, 2012 for the commencement of the preliminary inquiry.

While the people waited for a second glance at the accused on the return trip to the downstairs police station, in an effort to avoid another round of stones, the accused was returned to the holding cell by way of a back door exit from the upstairs magistrate court to the downstairs police station.

San Ignacio police says that for several weeks reports have been received of an individual cruising around the twin towns in a small car seeking out mostly young girls.

The situation came to a head on Monday, June 15 when at around 4:45p.m. one of the young girls spotted a car, with its head lights on, in front of a hardware store in the lower portion of Burns Avenue in San Ignacio. She said that as she was passing the vehicle a man, wearing an orange color shirt, exited the store, boarded the car, and sped off.

The car reportedly circled the back street and by the time she walked up the street, it came towards her and stopped. The driver, whom she described as a male Hispanic person, reportedly offered her 25 dollars to take him to Sacred Heart College where, he told her, he was going to pick up some teachers and students.

When the girl reportedly refused the offer he allegedly told her that if the money was an issue, he could offer her more. The girl again refused the offer and continued on her way to her mother’s workplace situated further up the street. She reported the incident to her mother and her mother’s employer. The information was quickly relayed to the police.

The police sprang into quick action and began searching for the vehicle, described as a small, four door silver color car with Belize City license plates and with dark tinted glass.

The trail led the police to the market in San Ignacio where they were told that the car was in the area a few minutes earlier and that the driver was seen speaking to a young girl who boarded the car after which it sped off.

This new information only served to heighten the urgency to find the car. The police raced down Savannah Street towards Branch Mouth in that area where the Macal meets the Mopan River to form the Belize Old River and there, parked under a big fig tree, was a car fitting the description.

The police moved up to the car, demanded for the driver to lower the glass and they came face to face with a male Hispanic person wearing an orange color shirt sitting behind the steering wheel in the driver’s seat with a young girl in the front passenger seat.

The driver, the passenger and the car were brought to the police station, where the man was identified as Bert Denton Haylock Vasquez, 28, Belizean businessman of #57 North Front Street in Belize City. The girl, a minor, reportedly told the police that she was selling donuts in the market area in San Ignacio Town when the car approached, stopped and the driver asked for directions. He reportedly bought two bags of donuts after which the girl boarded the car, the driver locked the doors and it sped off eventually ending up in Branch mouth with the police arriving shortly thereafter.

Who Would Want Cecilio Dead?

SAN IGNACIO, Cayo, Thursday, June 21, 2012:

A San Ignacio mechanic is today recuperating at home after luckily surviving a noon attempt to execute him.

Police reports that at around 12 noon on Monday, June 18, the victim, Cecilio Gregorio, 35, Guatemalan, naturalized Belizean, mechanic, was at his workshop where he lives at the corner of Military and Jah Streets in the Oscar Sabido Layout Area of San Ignacio town when two, unmasked men rode up on a red motorcycle. The man controlling the motorcycle remained on the cycle, with the engine running, at the entrance gate to the compound while the passenger hopped off and first approached the victim's brother and in spanish asked him for a job. The man was reportedly directed and walked to the nearby office where he pushed open the door, stood at the doorway and asked the secretary "Donde esta el muchaco?" - where is the boy? - which was interpreted by the secretary to mean where is the boss?). She pointed to the boss, Cecilio Gregorio, who was just about to finish washing his hands inside a sink under the garage as he was preparing to go to lunch. He was walking away from the sink when he was approached by the unmasked hispanic man, wearing a blue shirt and dark pants with a single strap bag slung across his shoulder with one of his hands inside the bag. The man, in spanish, asked him for a job, and when Cecilio responded that there was none at the time, the man reportedly withdrew his hand from the bag, pointed a small handgun at Cecilio and, from close range, he pulled the trigger and in the process letting off a single shot.

Cecilio reportedly fell backwards landing inside a cemented hole in the ground under the garage.

With about seven other workers present, the shooter spun around and while fleeing to rejoin the colleague who was waiting on the motorcycle near the entrance gate, he pointed the gun at the victim's brother and pulled the trigger, the gun reportedly snapped and the brother threw a spanner at him.

The shooter reportedly hopped on the back of the motorcycle which had its engine running and the two persons sped off.

Some of the employees boarded a small white pickup truck and pursued the fleeing duo on the motorcycle which exited the area, turned right and headed towards Bullet Tree Falls Village.

The bleeding victim emerged from the hole and was quickly rushed to the San Ignacio Community Hospital where he was prepped and rushed to the Karl Heusner Memorial Hospital in Belize City.

Police say that Cecilio sustained an injury to the front portion of the head and a bullet graze to the right shoulder. He was treated and listed in a stable condition until his return home on Wednesday.

The review of a nearby surveillance camera revealed the two suspects entering the street to the area at 11:57 am. It showed them exiting at 12:07 with the pursuing white pickup truck also exiting exactly 20 seconds behind the fleeing men as they headed up toward Bullet Tree Falls Village.

A fruitless search was conducted, by the police, in Bullet Tree Falls Village. Police strongly suspect that the gunman and the accomplice, are hired hit-men from across the border in Guatemala.

As the investigations continues, an arrest is yet to be made while relatives, friends and associates continue to ask: Who would want Cecilio dead?.

Your Weekly Horoscope & Lucky Numbers

ARIES:

March 22 to April 20

The desire for personal advancement could cause you to consider furthering your education in some way. You may want to wait a little bit before deciding, but something has shifted within you. It's time for some kind of change. Be prepared. Lucky numbers:02, 50, 93.

TAURUS:

April 21 to May 21

This week you are apt to be a bit preoccupied. You might find yourself considering concepts that others think are strange. You might want to discuss this with others. However, you should make a decision based on your preferences without influence from those who aren't directly involved. Lucky numbers:12, 47, 82.

GEMINI:

May 22 to June 21

This week is likely to be a gratifying week. A longtime friend might call and want to get together. Everyone around you might seem egocentric, and you could feel that your concerns are of no interest to anyone. Don't let that upset you. Lucky numbers:.

CANCER:

June 22 to July 23

Career matters are likely to be very much on your mind this week. Perhaps a new opportunity has come your way. This might not be a good day to make a decision, so don't rush it. Before you make any dramatic changes, think things through carefully. Lucky numbers:31, 67, 89.

LEO:

July 24 to August 21

Matters involving, romance, and children could require considerable thought this week. You might be inclined to mull over the possibilities. You could consult others to get more opinions. For the most part, you will want to decide on your own. In the meantime, you could keep yourself occupied by working on ongoing projects. Lucky numbers:07, 25, 77.

VIRGO:

August 22 to September 21

Matters involving the home could suddenly grow serious. This is a positive development, but new possibilities could be opening up and force you to make a decision. Weigh the pros and cons before making any new moves in your life or any other task that might be on the back burner. Lucky numbers:18, 51, 87.

LIBRA:

September 22 to October 23

This week you might consider entering into a partnership with a relative. This could show promise of success and is worth serious consideration. You will want to be sure it is right for you. You might even get around to considering the nitty-gritty of a possible agreement, but for the most part, it isn't likely that you'll be making any final decisions yet.

Lucky numbers:04, 36, 24.

SCORPIO: October 24 to November 21

Enthusiasm and energy will be your allies today. You will make decisions and go in new directions for your own good and the people around you. Your dynamism will have a beneficial impact on your family. This newfound strength will give you a great boost. Lucky numbers:43, 56, 74.

SAGITTARIUS: November 22 to December 21

You are organized and rigorous. You plan everything, but with this week's energy, you will be inclined to let the day go by without keeping to a tight schedule. You can worry easily, but don't let this get you down. Follow the people around you. They will teach you to see the world differently. Lucky numbers:09, 28, 62.

CAPRICORN: December 22 to January 20

A lot of serious matters are on your mind, perhaps involving plans for the future. It is likely that you will want to stay home this week and do some contemplating. Various new opportunities could be coming your way and you won't want to let them pass you by without serious consideration. Chores around the house could prove a valuable outlet for physical energy while allowing thoughts to churn in your mind. Lucky numbers:16, 53, 99.

AQUARIUS: January 21 to February 19

Contemplation is the word for this week. At some point, you might receive a call from a friend wanting advice on a serious decision. Goals of your own might need some thought and possibly re-evaluation, as changes in your immediate environment could present new and exciting possibilities to you. Think about it. Lucky numbers:14, 48, 85.

PISCES: February 20 to March 21

You have always been a loner. You tend to act on your own and you don't trust outside help. Over the last few weeks, however, you have managed to find someone who have accepted you the way you are. It is as if you have found an escape from reality. But, you will find that if you open your heart to someone, there will be additional places of refuge. Lucky numbers:22, 64, 81.

COMMEMORATIVE NOTE AND COIN NOTICE

The public is hereby advised that Section 22 (1) of the Central Bank of Belize Act Chapter 262 gives the Central Bank the sole right to issue notes and coins in Belize, and only such notes and coins issued by the Bank are legal tender in Belize. Furthermore, under Section 24 (2) of the Act, the Central Bank has the right to determine the denominations, inscriptions, form, material and other characteristics of notes and coins subject to the Minister's approval.

On 30 April 2012 the Central Bank launched a commemorative circulation $20 banknote and $1 coin to mark its 30th Anniversary. The front upper left hand corner of the $20 note and the back of the $1 coin includes a depiction of the majestic Jabiru Stork in flight. On the note, directly below the Jabiru Stork is the commemorative text "30th Anniversary Central Bank of Belize". The back of the currency note and the front of the coin depict the Central Bank of Belize headquarters.

The Central Bank would like to reiterate that the commemorative circulation $20 banknote and $1 coin are legal tender. Both the note and the coin are being circulated alongside the existing $20 banknote and $1 coin. The existing $1 coin depicts Queen Elizabeth the Second in the front and three sailing ships in the back while the $20 banknote depicts the jaguar in the front and the animals of Belize in the back.

The public is advised that all security features incorporated in Belize's currency notes remain unchanged. To confirm the authenticity of the Belize Currency note the public is advised that they should check for more than one security feature. The key security features incorporated in the Belize currency notes are: watermark with denominational value, windowed security thread and the see-through feature. Please visit the Central Bank of Belize's website at www.centralbankofbelize.org.bz to view further design and security specifications for each denomination.

Chinese Store Robbed - Three Boys Charged

SAN IGNACIO, Cayo, Monday, June 18, 2012:

Swift police response on Friday, June 15, led to the arrest of a Guatemalan and two Belizean boys on charges related to the mid morning robbery of a Chinese grocery store in their San Ignacio Town neighborhood.

The three accused from San Ignacio were identified as Guatemalan, William Ralda, 20, of a 5th street address; Ghian Espat, also 20, and Naim Quiroz, 19, both Belizeans residing on 2nd Street.

According to San Ignacio police the crime occurred at Chen's Store on Joseph Andrews Drive, in broad daylight at around 10:30 on the morning of Friday, June 15, 2012.

The Chinese grocer, Huang Jin Ma, told the police that he was sitting on a chair at the entrance of his store while his daughter-in-law, Fenny Zhen, was behind the counter attending to a customer, when two male persons of Hispanic decent, each armed with a knife and with handkerchiefs tied around their faces, rushed into the store, held them up at knife-point and demanded money. The men then proceed to empty the cash register of about 200 dollars in cash along with 20 five dollars Smart telephone cards valued at 100 dollars and 9 ten dollars BTL cards valued at 90 dollars. The robbers also made off with a 1,000 dollar black Intel Atom brand laptop computer all for a total value of 1,390 dollars.

The complainant informed that after pulling off the act, the two robbers, one dressed in a brown shirt and the other in a green striped shirt, ran out the store into an awaiting small car with taxi license plates which sped down Joseph Andrews Drive towards Sacred Heart College dropping them off a short distance from the crime scene after which they ran into a nearby orange orchard.

The police informed that the white Toyota car with taxi license plates D-3281 was located and impounded while the driver Benjamin Pinelo Sr., 48, Belizean Special Constable serving San Ignacio police, was detained and later released after providing the police with a statement.

Naim Quiroz, 19

The investigation swiftly led to a residence on the nearby Bullet Tree Road where police came upon the two suspects, William Ralda and Ghian Espat both of whom were found wearing shirts as described by the victim. They were immediately detained and transported to the police station in San Ignacio.

Breaking down during questioning, Espat reportedly quickly confessed to committing the crime. He led investigators to the apartment where he stays on

STAR HUMOR

The Highschool Graduate

James fresh out of high school was hired by Save-U Supermarket. He reported for his first day of work. The manager greeted him with a warm handshake and a smile, gave him a broom and said, "Your first job will be to sweep out the store."

"But I'm a college graduate." James replied indignantly.

"Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't know that," said the manager. "Here, give me the broom, I'll show you how."

I Bet You I Can....

A man walks into a bar has a few drinks and asks what his tab was. The bartender replies that it is twenty dollars plus tip. The guy says, "I'll bet you my tab double or nothing that I can bite my eye." The bartender accepts the bet, and the guy pulls out his glass eye and bites it.

He has a few more drinks and asks for his bill again. The bartender reports that his bill now is thirty dollars plus tip. He bets the bartender he can bite his other eye. The bartender accepts knowing the man can't possibly have two glass eyes.

The guy then proceeds to take out his false teeth and bite his other eye.

Readers Write

GALEN UNIVERSITY, June 14, 2012

Dear Editor,

I am writing in response to the article written on June 10, 2012 (No.312) where a former player of the Galen Eagle's basketball team, Mr. Emani Enriquez, assaulted Referee Mr. Elmer Martinez. The actions of Mr. Enriquez were totally uncalled for and misrepresented everything that Galen University stands for.

Mr. Emani Enriquez was immediately stripped of his athletic scholarship and expelled from the university upon management's hearing of the incident. The following week a meeting was held by my office, Coach Williams and the rest of the team members. The players expressed their utter shock at Mr. Enriquez's actions and conveyed their deepest regrets to the referees and fans of San Ignacio. They were also reminded about the high standards to which they are expected to abide by, both on and off the court.

The remaining players of the Galen Eagle's team has offered to do community service and help in conducting basketball summer programs for the youth of Cayo in an attempt to repair the broken trust of the San Ignacio residents. I, along with Coach Williams, personally visited Mr. Elmer Martinez to convey the sincere apologies and regrets of not only the Galen Eagle's team but also management as well.

Galen University recognizes that a serious offense was committed by one of its players and has taken great measures to distance itself from Mr. Emani Enriquez. We can assure the public and the readers of this newspaper that such an incident will never occur again.

Galen University has high academic and athletic standards for its faculty, staff and students. Galen remains committed to building and working along with the community of Cayo and looks forward to being a part of future community events such as games, vigils, outreach and church related ceremonies.

Sincerely,

Byron Acosta

Chinese Store Robbed - Three Boys Charged

2nd street. Inside the room police came upon the third detainee, Naim Quiroz who was found in proximity of all the stolen goods all of which were later identified by the complainant as being his property.

Police informs that Espot provided a cautioned statement in which he reportedly confessed to committing the robbery at Chens Store and turning over the items to Quiroz for safekeeping.

The investigation consequently led to the arrest of Guatemalan William Ralda, 20, and Ghian Espot, also 20, for robbery while Naim Quiroz, 19, was charged only for handling stolen goods.

In the absence of a magistrate in San Ignacio, all three boys, on Monday, June 18, were transported to Belmopan and into the courtroom of Magistrate Adolph Lucas Jr. where they all pled not guilty.

Based on the prevalence of the crime and the fact that Ralda and Espot are on bail for aggravated assault and wounding respectively, Prosecutor George

Chen's Store

Gomez instantly objected to the granting of bail to all three boys. In partially concurring with the prosecutor's request, Magistrate Lucas proceeded to remand Ralda and Espot to jail while Quiroz was granted and met bail in the sum of 5,000 dollars.

The case was adjourned until Wednesday, August 22, 2012.

This Is The Beast Says Police

Police Commissioner David Henderson (C) flanked by

OC Cayo Police, Sr. Supt Chester Williams (L) and Lead Investigator, Inspector Reymundo Reyes (R)

City license plates C-7770, was searched, and inside a black computer bag, in the trunk of the car, the police found a yellow fast food receipt and when it was opened, it was found to contain a gold ring with six stones.

As the investigation continued, in the absence of the father who was at his Barton Creek Farm, Jasmine Lowe's mother, Marisol Lowe was called in to the police station where she positively identified the ring as belonging to her daughter. She told the police that she wore the ring for nine years as her engagement ring.

The father later informed that when the relationship fell apart, the wife left the broken ring at his house. He said that he later got it repaired and gave it to the daughter as a gift for her 13th birthday on April 20, less than six weeks before her dead body was found on June 6.

Armed with this new piece of evidence the investigation immediately took a sharp turn with the accused coming into focus as a prime suspect in the murder of Jasmine Lowe while the alleged activities with other girls took a back burner eventually culminating in the Wednesday evening laying of formal murder charge against the accused.

The question on most people's mind is: What was Bert Vasquez, with an obvious propensity to commit crimes against women, doing outside prison walls?

A quick Google search of the name reveals that Bert Vasquez had at least two run-ins with the law last year.

In the first incident, a 22-year old woman reported that on January 25, 2011 she allegedly accepted a ride from Vasquez to take her home. The victim claims that he held her at knife-point, took her to a secluded area near mile 12 on the Northern Highway and attempted to rape her. She reportedly managed to escape and flee the area.

In the second incident, a 16-year old minor reported to police that Bert Vasquez kidnapped her, sexually assaulted her and pistol whipped her.

The victim reported that shortly after 8 o'clock on May 13, 2011, she was waiting for a bus in the Pound Yard Bridge area also in Belize City, when a tinted vehicle pulled up. She claims that the driver approached her with a point 38 pistol and forced her into the vehicle. According to the minor, Vasquez took her to the Vista Del Mar area of Ladyville where he sexually assaulted her and hit her in the face, injuring her nose, with the gun.

In a snap press conference, held at the police station shortly after the accused was arraigned, a rather confident Officer Commanding Cayo (Police) District, Senior Superintendent of Police, Chester Williams, told the assembled press: "I am confident that we have enough that we could secure a conviction at the end..... I can clearly state that we have sufficient evidence that I believe can render a conviction for this matter..... I am positively sure that we have the person we are looking for in connection with Jasmine Lowe's murder."

Sr. Supt. Williams, with Police Commissioner David Henderson Sr. and the lead investigator in the case, Inspector Reymundo Reyes at the head table, informed that while the accused was first pinned with the more senior murder charge, for which bail cannot be granted, the recording of statements against him continues as more girls are coming forward. He said that all of the complainants have positively identified the accused in various ID parades.

Williams informed that the number of complainants, as at the time of the press conference, stood at 11, with another one coming forward as the press conference was about to start.

The accused was returned to Court at around 3:00 pm on Thursday, June 21, 2012 where he was additionally charged with 11 counts of common assault ; one count of aggravated assault and one count of forcible abduction. On these new charges he will be returning to court on Wednesday, August 8, 2012.

Shortly after being arraigned, the accused, with another prisoner, amidst stoning from the crowd, were loaded onto the new police prison van for the ride to the Belize Central Prison.
