Williams Facing Burglary Charge

SAN IGNACIO TOWN, Cayo, Thursday, October 25, 2012:

The good news coming out of western Belize this week, is that San Ignacio police is reporting no major criminal activity in the community.

The only reported incident this week is one that took place a week ago in Bullet Tree Falls Village in which a Belizean businesswoman reported being held captive in her house, for almost 40 hours, by her common- law-husband whom she has known for less than four months.

Adela Martinez, 46, reported that when she refused his sexual advances an argument began, at round 5:00 pm on Sunday, October 14, between herself and Darrington “JR” Williams whom she has known since early July after first meeting him at the restaurant she owns in the village.

The Accused
Darrington “JR” Williams, 46

Martinez told the police that the disagreement took place inside her cement bungalow house resulting in the accused allegedly locking her inside the house, taking away her cellular telephone and ordering her to sit on a sofa in the living room.

Martinez further alleges that the accused guarded her, first with a short machete and later with a longer one, for almost forty hours when, at around 8:00 am on Tuesday, October 16, he escorted her to the restaurant with instructions to get money for him. She alleges that about seven hours earlier, at around 1:00 am that Tuesday morning, he punched her to the left side of the face injuring her jaw and threatened to chop her with the machete.

Martinez informed that as Williams stood guard at a nearby shop, while she entered the restaurant, she seized the opportunity and escaped.

The complainant told the police that she stayed away from home for two days and that she returned on Thursday, October 18, 2012, only to find that her house was broken into with the following items allegedly stolen: two Hamilton Beach brand cake mixers, a Black & Decker brand coffee maker, a Hamilton

Riding Across Belize For A Worthwhile Cause

Members of The BWSL Cycling Team

SANTA ELENA TOWN, Cayo, Thursday, October 25, 2012:

The Belize Social Security Board’s 9th Annual Ride Across Belize cycling event, with about one hundred riders, got off to a good start as scheduled at 7:00 am on Wednesday, October 24, 2012 from in front of the Social Security office in Corozal Town.

The first leg of the four-day event ended in front of the Social Security branch office on Princess Margaret Drive in Belize City.

The cyclists departed Belize City at 7:00 am on Thursday, October 25, for the 68 mile ride to the Social Security branch office at the corner of Liberty Street and the George Price Highway in Santa Elena, Cayo.

Participating in the event again this year is the Belize Water Services team, comprising eight riders, headed by Nicolyn Parks.

On arrival in Santa Elena around midday today, Nicolyn told the assembled media that she is proud of her team and that “BWS does find it important to contribute to society and events like these as well as the causes. It is a part of what we do as a company” said Nicolyn Parks. She also told the media that “The Missing Children Organization is definitely a very important cause as well as Crimestoppers. So it is just our way of giving back, participating and supporting these organizations.”

The riders will be departing from Santa Elena at 7:00 am on Friday, for the ride to Dangriga on the third stage of the race.

On Saturday morning they will be leaving Dangriga also at 7:00 am as they head to the finish line, this year, in Placencia, as opposed to Punta Gorda Town where the event ended last year.

The organizers informed that proceeds from this year’s Ride Across Belize will be donated to Crimestoppers Belize and the recently formed Belize Missing Child Emergency Response. These two organizations are actively engaged in combating the scourge of crime in the country.

We extend heartfelt congratulations to the organizers of the event and the participants, mostly Belizean professionals, who have been granted time off from work to participate in this humanitarian fund raising event.

We likewise congratulate all those business establishments, statutory bodies and other organizations for selflessly affording their employees the time off to participate in this worthwhile undertaking.

Your Weekly Horoscope and Lucky Numbers

ARIES:

March 22 to April 20

Your thinking is apt to be quite clear and rational this week. This is especially important, since others will be looking for your thoughts and opinions on a certain matter. People will know that they can get a straight and honest answer from you, so don't disappoint them. Think through each situation clearly before you offer your advice. You will find that it's worth the effort. Lucky numbers: 06, 24, 68.

TAURUS:

April 21 to May 21

By being around negative and flap people, you might inadvertently pick up these habits. Be careful about your associates, because you will find that others judge you according to the company you keep, especially if you start talking like them. Make sure to maintain a respectful attitude and proper manners no matter who your company is. Lucky numbers: 40, 43, 91.

GEMINI:

May 22 to June 21

You may feel like the world is caving in on you in many ways this week. It could be that you have recently dug your own little cave to crawl into and be safe from the outside world. Realize that the deeper you dig in unstable terrain, the more unsteady the walls. If you aren't careful, it's likely to come crashing down on top of you. Lucky numbers: 18, 45, 90.

CANCER:

June 22 to July 23

Remember that you can only remain in charge as long as the others around you support your personality and leadership abilities. Avoid mutiny by taking care of the people in your world instead of simply trying to run their lives. Gain respect with kind words and a sensitive attitude rather than by enforcing harsh rules and regulations that restrict and aggravate. Lucky numbers: 03, 28, 57.

LEO:

July 24 to August 21

There should be no doubt in your mind about which way to proceed. Don't let self-doubt sneak into the picture. Your mind is sensitive and alert, so trust it. Take the lead when you feel confident about a situation. Make sure to eat plenty of protein-rich foods. They will help stabilize and bring you another step closer to the realization of your dreams. Lucky numbers: 14, 37, 77.

VIRGO:

August 22 to September 21

Your rock-star attitude may be getting a bit old now. People aren't going to continue to listen to your demands for attention. Every person in the world is special, so try not to act as if you are the only one who is. Help a child assemble a new toy today or help a friend pick out a new shirt. Do something for others instead of always expecting things for yourself! Lucky numbers: 20, 32, 84.

LIBRA:

September 22 to October 23

Your ship is finally coming into port after being out in rough seas for so long. It is time to dock the boat for a while. Relax and explore the area. There is nothing wrong with getting off your vessel for a while. You may not even realize how much you have missed solid ground until now. Remember what it's like to be stable again. Lucky numbers: 16, 39, 64.

SCORPIO:

October 24 to November 21

You may still be on something of a high from the last couple weeks. You will definitely be tempted to let the good times continue to roll. Think about ways you can keep them rolling while still maintaining good judgment. Don't let things get too out of control this week. It's important that you maintain a bit of stability at all times. Lucky numbers: 12, 48, 73.

SAGITTARIUS:

November 22 to December 21

Communicate from a centered space this week. Fortunately, the nature of the week caters to your needs and desires. You shouldn't have to work too hard to get what you want. Things should come to you naturally. You may wonder why you got stressed out before over what now seem to be small issues. Consciously release the worry and concern that are still stored in your body! Lucky numbers: 08, 55, 96.

CAPRICORN:

December 22 to January 20

Work toward achieving a better unity between you and the people around you. It could be that certain people in your circle of friends somehow feel alienated in one way or another. Perhaps they don't feel like they fit in with the rest of the group. Remind yourself and others that everyone is unique and that all should be equally accepted despite individual differences.

AQUARIUS:

January 21 to February 19

You will feel much better about yourself if you get things done this week. Like a meal that tastes good but isn't necessarily good for you, you might enjoy this day by being lazy, but you won't feel so good when night comes and you realize that you haven't accomplished anything. Use this week productively so you have a sense of fulfillment by the weekend. Lucky numbers: 15, 34, 76.

PISCES:

February 20 to March 21

You might consider taking some time off this week. Like a sailboat on the ocean, you have been taxed lately by all the turbulence. The pressure on you has been tremendous. Think about pulling your sails to half-mast in order to take a break. You may not be going as quickly as before, but you will find that this is exactly the rest you need in order to complete the voyage. Lucky numbers: 10, 42, 59.

Shock As Brazilian Man Turns Up At Own Wake

A Brazilian man gave his relatives the shock of their lives when he turned up at his own wake at his mother's home.

The family was gathered around a coffin thought to contain 41-year-old car washer Gilberto Araujo when he appeared, causing some people to faint and others to flee in fear.

The dead man, said to closely resemble Gilberto, is believed to be another car washer who was murdered at the weekend.

Gilberto's brother said he had wrongly identified him in the mortuary.

Jose Marcos Araujo said he had not seen his brother in four months. He had heard news that a car washer had been killed, and when he saw a body in the mortuary which looked very much like his brother, he assumed it was Gilberto.

'Overjoyed'

The family took the body to his mother's home in the town of Alagoinhas.

Gilberto Araujo said he heard about the mistake when an acquaintance approached him in the street to say his family was about to set off for his funeral.

"A friend told me there was a coffin and that I was inside it," he said.

"So I said: 'But I'm alive, pinch me!'"

Mr Araujo said he tried to call another friend who was at the wake but the friend thought it was a hoax and hung up, so he decided to go in person.

His mother told reporters she was overjoyed when her son showed up

Gilberto Araujo Hugging Him Mother At His Wake

alive. "What mother wouldn't be, and then sees him alive?" she told reporters.

Police inspector Roberto Lima said the confusion surrounding Mr Araujo's presumed death was "understandable".

"The two men closely resembled each other and both worked as car washers," he said.

Police say the dead man has now been identified as Genivaldo Santos Gama but they are now seeking further information.

★ STAR HUMOR ★

It's All About The Money

Mr. Pedro Esbat lives alone in the Kings Park Area of Belize City with only a pet dog for company.

One day the dog died. Mr. Esbat went to the parish priest and asked, "Father, me dog is dead. Could you say a mass for the poor creature?"

Father Patrick replied, "I'm afraid not; we do not have services for animals in this church. But there are some Baptists down there on Gabourel Lane. There is no telling what they would do.

Maybe they'll do something for the creature."

"I'll check with them right away Father" responded Mr Esbat. "Since you are in the business of saying mass" continued Mr. Esbat "do you think $10,000 is enough to donate to them for the service?"

Father Patrick exclaimed, "Sweet Mary, Holy Mother of Jesus! Why didn't you tell me the dog was Catholic?"

True Husband's Worth

Susan called her insurance company one day after her barn burned down and said: "We had our barn insured for $50,000 and I want my money."

The agent replied: "Whoa there, just a minute, Susan. Insurance doesn't work quite like that.

We will ascertain the value of what was insured and provide you with a new one of comparable worth."

There was a long pause before Susan replied: "If that's the case, then I'd like to cancel the policy on my husband."

Grandpa Jim's Young Gial

"Doc, please meet my 20 year old wife, Maria" said eighty-nine year old Grampa Jim as he took Maria on a maternity visit to the Community hospital. "Maria is five months pregnant" remarked Grampa Jim proudly. "What is your opinion Doc?" asked Grampa Jim.

"Sit down Grampa Jim. Let me tell you a story" said Dr. Cuellar "A hunter hears a roar at the front door of his log cabin. He peeks through the window and sees a big tiger at his door. In his haste and fright, instead of the gun, he picks up the umbrella, points the umbrella at the tiger, BANG!! The tiger drops dead."

"That's impossible" responded Grampa Jim "Someone else must have shot the tiger"

"EXACTLY!!!" exclaimed Dr. Cuellar.

The Perfect Husband

There are several men in the locker room of a private club after exercising. Suddenly a cell phone that was on one of the benches rings. A man picks it up and the following conversation ensues: "Hello?" "Honey, It's me. Are you at the club?"

"Yes." replied the man.

"Great! I am at the mall 2 blocks from where you are. I saw a beautiful mink coat... It is absolutely gorgeous!! Can I buy it?"

"What's the price?"

"Only $1,500.00" replied the lady.

"Well, OK, go ahead and get it, if you like it that much..."

"Ahhh... Honey and I also stopped by the Mercedes dealership and saw the 2013 models. I saw one I really liked. I spoke with the salesman and he gave me a really good price ... and since we need to exchange the BMW that we bought last year..."

"What price did he quote you?"

"Only $60,000..."

"OK, but for that price I want it with all the options."

"Great! Before we hang up, something else..."

"What?"

"It might look like a lot, but I was reconciling your bank account and...I stopped by the real estate agent this morning and I saw the house we had looked at last year. It's on sale!! Remember? The one with a pool, English Garden, acre of park area, beachfront property..."

"How much are they asking?"

"Only $450,000... a magnificent price, and I see that we have that much in the bank to cover..."

"Well, then go ahead and buy it, but just bid $420,000. OK?" replied the man.

"OK, sweetie... Thanks! I'll see you later!! I love you!!!"

"Bye... I do too..." The man hangs up, closes the phone's flap and raises his hand while holding the phone and asks to all those present: "Does anyone know who this phone belongs to?"

Responding to Rolando Cocom

Dear Editor:

In reply to the article "People on the Move for Justice" by Rolando Cocom, he cautions against fundamentalism. He states that there is a danger in allowing Christian fundamentalists to be given too much voice in this movement for justice. According to the English Dictionary - Webster's New Universal Unabridged Dictionary, 1983-- "fundamental" is defined as a leading or primary principle, rule, law, or article which serves as the groundwork or basis. Example: the "fundamentals" of the Christian faith.

The problem is that much of Christianity today has been polluted by things---doctrines, philosophies, satanic infiltration. This has allowed the world to come into the so-called "church" so that the "church" is not what it originally meant. The meaning of church from the Greek word "ekklesia" means "a calling out." A calling out of what? -- The world and its beliefs and ways. II Corinthians 4:3-4 states; But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

II Timothy 4:2-4 states: Preach the WORD; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

He also states that fundamentalists generally believe that behind the criminal is the devil or some evil spirit. Yes the spirit world is very real, and if Almighty YAH opens people's eyes to see in the spirit, most people would be shocked. And, whatever a person listens to with the intent to know, watches with the intent to know, or engages in ---- opens the door for evil spirits to come into the person. It is true because God's WORD is true. Why do you think most people do not do hideous crimes? I have studied about deliverance from evil spirits -- and most churches do not even believe in casting out evil spirits. But, God's WORD states that this is one of the signs that would follow them that believe --in Mark 16:17-18.

The author comes against Plus TV members also -- but, there should be true believing Christians in the government who will bow their knees to Almighty YAH and seek His help and look to Him and His WORD for guidance in the direction this country should go.

Also -- you cannot have "peace" without the "Prince of peace" -- Jesus Christ.

Deuteronomy 8:3 and Matthew 4:4 man do not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD.

Psalm 9:17 -- The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

Sincerely, Elaine J. Pinkerton

Oldest Mayan Tomb Found In Guatemala's Retalhuleu

One of the oldest Mayan tombs ever found has been uncovered in western Guatemala, say archaeologists.

Located at a temple site in Retalhuleu province, the grave is thought to be that of an ancient ruler or religious leader who lived some 2,000 years ago.

Carbon-dating indicated the tomb had been built between 700 and 400 BC, said government archaeologist Miguel Orrego.

A rich array of jade jewels, including a necklace depicting a vulture-headed human figure, were found.

The scientists found no bones at the tomb in the Tak'alik Ab'aj site - some 180km (110 miles) south of Guatemala City - probably because they had disintegrated.

But the vulture-headed figure

The scientists named the grave's occupant K'utz Chman, which in Mayan language means grandfather Vulture, due to the vulture headed figure found at the site appears to identify the tomb's occupant as an a jaw - or ruler - because the symbol represented power and economic status and was given to respected elder men.

Big chief

The scientists named the grave's occupant K'utz Chman, which in the Mayan language, Mam, means Grandfather Vulture.

"He was a big chief", said Mr Orrego. "He bridged the gap between the Olmec and Mayan cultures in central America."

The leader may have been the first to introduce elements which later became characteristic of the Mayan culture, such as the building of pyramids and the carving of sculptures depicting the royal families, Reuters news agency cited historians as saying.

The Olmec empire began to fade at around 400 BC, while the Maya civilization was starting to grow and develop, said Christa Schieber, another archaeologist working at the site.

The Mayas went on to rule much of Central America from 250 to 800 AD; their empire extended from modern-day Honduras to central Mexico.

Mexico Exhumes Relative of Drug Lord For DNA Test

Mexican authorities exhumed a relative of drug kingpin Heriberto Lazcano on Monday and took DNA samples from the corpse to remove any doubt they had killed the Zetas leader.

Lazcano, one of Mexico's most wanted men, is believed to have been killed at a baseball field in the northern state of Coahuila on October 7, but the cartel leader's body was stolen from a funeral home by gunmen hours later.

Mexican officials had identified Lazcano with pictures and fingerprints taken at the funeral home, but authorities announced last week that they had decided to exhume one of his parents' bodies to put to rest any doubts.

Forensic experts exhumed a body on Monday in San Francisco cemetery, south of the city of Pachuca in the central state of Hidalgo, as police kept curious onlookers at bay.

A source in the federal prosecutor's office declined to say which relative had been exhumed.

"While the fingerprints and photos did not leave room for any doubts, the (identification) process is also being carried out with a DNA lab study," the source said on condition of anonymity.

Founded by military deserters, the Zetas are one of the most powerful gangs in a drug war that has claimed an estimated 60,000 lives in the past six years.

Lazcano was accused of masterminding the arson attack on a casino last year in the northeastern city of Monterrey that left 52 people dead.

He was also blamed for the killing for 72 migrants found with their hands tied in the northeastern state of Tamaulipas, which borders the United States, in August 2010.

One of two main leaders of the Zetas cartel, Lazcano had a $2.6 million reward on his head. The United States had set its own award at $5 million.

The Zetas are engaged in a brutal turf war with the Pacific region's Sinaloa Cartel, led by fugitive billionaire Joaquin "El Chapo" (Shorty) Guzman, Mexico's public enemy number one and a billionaire criminal who escaped from a maximum-security prison in

The new top Zeta, Miguel Angel Trevino, will have to consolidate his leadership position while at the same time facing a furious offensive from their western rivals.

Trevino, 40, an ex-police officer also known as "Z-40" or "El 40," had been effectively running the Zetas for months, according to experts.

Guzman launched an offensive against the Zetas earlier this year focused on Nuevo Laredo, a northern border town that is the transit point for 40 per cent of all Mexico's overland exports into the United States.

The Zetas were founded by Mexican special forces soldiers who deserted and went to work for the Gulf Cartel as enforcers.

They eventually broke with their employers and struck out on their own, adding protection rackets, human trafficking, prostitution and kidnapping to their core drug smuggling business.

The Gulf Cartel has now joined forces with the Sinaloa Cartel, its former foe.

The Zetas are known for decapitating and dismembering their enemies, a shock tactic soon adopted by their rivals.

World Wants Obama Re-Elected AGAIN: BBC Survey

The United States president might be locked in a neck and neck battle at home with his challenger Mitt Romney, but across the world, including in India, people still overwhelmingly want to see Barack Obama re-elected.

According to an international survey by BBC World Service, Obama is preferred to Romney in 20 of the 21 countries with Pakistan the only country where more people favoured the Republican for an election.

The poll comes just two weeks ahead of the US presidential election and while Americans appear to be sharply divided in their choice, the people across the world give a thumping endorsement to the incumbent.

Overall, an average of 50 per cent would prefer to see Obama elected, compared to only 9 per cent who prefer Romney. The rest said they had no preference between the two.

A total of 21,797 people were polled for the survey conducted by GlobeScan/PIPA between July 3 and September 3. France, where 72 per cent of those surveyed favoured the president against 2 per cent for Romney, emerged as the most pro-Obama nation.

On the other hand, Pakistan where 14 per cent wanted to see Romney elected compared to 11 per cent for Obama was the only country polled that preferred the Republican.

The poll indicates that Obama's foreign policy is seen favourably by most countries of the world over that of the previous Republican dispensations.

In case of Pakistan, Obama's tenure has coincided with one of the worst phases seen by US-Pak ties and the poll clearly reflects the situation.

Issues such as US drone strikes on Pakistani territory, a North Atlantic Treaty Organisation raid that killed 24 Pakistani soldiers last year as well as the Abbottabad raid that killed Osama bin Laden have seen the ties between the two countries plunge to an all time low.

In India, 36 per cent of people polled preferred Obama against 12 per cent for Romney. Compared to four years ago, support for Obama went up in seven of the 15 countries, including India, that were polled this time as well as in 2008.

France, Brazil, the United Kingdom, Panama, Indonesia, India, and Turkey, saw a rise in support for Obama after his presidency while four countries -- Kenya, Mexico, Poland, and China saw a drop.

"While the presidential race in America looks like going down to the wire, global public opinion appears to be firmly behind Barack Obama's re-election -- even if two in five express no preference between the two candidates," said GlobeScan Director of Global Insights Sam Mountford.

The other countries that were heavily in Obama's favour were Australia (67 per cent), Canada (66 per cent), Nigeria (66 per cent), and the UK (65 per cent).

Williams Facing Burglary Charge

Beach brand blender, a corn mill, a coconut grinder, a Victoria Secret perfume, a Sex In The City perfume and two Casio brand wrist watches, all for a total value of seven hundred dollars.

The medical officer who examined Martinez classified the injury she sustained to the face as harm.

The investigation led to the detention of Darrington “JR” Williams, 46, Belizean electrician, also from the village of Bullet Tree Falls.

While the police is contemplating pressing other charges against him, possibly including unlawful imprisonment, Williams has been charged for burglary on the basis of a statement from the complainant’s son, who told the police that he came upon the accused inside his mother’s house and that after questioning him about being therein, fearing for his safety, the son immediately left the house.

The accused, Darrington “JR” Williams, initially facing a burglary charge, is schedule to appear in the San Ignacio courtroom of magistrate Narda Morgan on Friday, October 26, 2012.

BWS Team Visits Work Site In Belize City

mains, leak detection, pressure testing and service connections.

In summing up today’s visit to the work site on Freetown Road, Chairman August informed that while it is one thing to sit in the boardroom and sort out the various projects with colleagues on the Board, it was quite an enlightening experience to have seen the actual execution of the works.

He commended the CEO, the Technical Services team and indeed the work crews for the labour intensive operations necessary to get the job done right, in tandem with the Belize City Council’s street concreting project.

Chairman August likewise expressed appreciation to residents of Belize City, especially pedestrians and the motoring public, for the patience and understanding displayed amidst the inconvenience caused as the works progresses.

He especially noted the inconvenience caused to the motoring public resulting from the various needed diversions of traffic as well as the bumpy condition of the road surface occasioned by the many road crossings required for individual connections to household and business establishments along the route.

He informed however that when the project is completed, motorists and pedestrians alike will enjoy much improved street conditions with the rigid surface pavement of carriageways that the Belize City Council, the Belize Tourism Board and the Ministry of Works are undertaking in Belize City.

The Belize Water Services currently has eight work crews engaged full time in Belize City working along with the Belize Tourism Board on the Sustainable Tourism Project as well as with the Belize City Council on the street upgrading project and with the Government of Belize Ministry of Works on the south side Poverty Alleviation Project. The company will also very soon be engaged, with the Government of Belize, via the Social Investment Fund, on a massive drainage program in the Buttonwood Bay area of Belize City.
