

Cayo's Oscar Quiroz Is The Cyclist To Watch On Holy Saturday

Oscar Quiroz Flanked By His Many Awards and Medals
SAN IGNACIO TOWN, Cayo, Thursday, March 14, 2013:

Oscar Quiroz, the junior cyclist who has recently graduated into the major leagues will be the cyclist to watch in the March 30, Annual Holy Saturday Cross Country Cycling Classic.

The rising young cycling star who participated in the Smart Belmopan Cycling Classic on March 10, shocked the crowd when he captured the top prize in the junior league category by crossing the finish line one minute and forty seconds ahead of the second place finisher.

Quiroz has dominated the junior league since exploding onto the scene back in March 2010 when he competed in the Junior Cross Country Cycling Classic placing 9th in this prestigious race, an excellent feat by any standards for a first time rider.

Since his debut in March of 2010, Oscar Quiroz has gradually increased his placement in every race and is now the cyclist to beat in the junior cycling competitions.

On the international scene, in August last year, Quiroz has competed in the Vuelta Del Provenir, a three day race in Guatemala City. He has also competed in the Caribbean Junior Championship Individual Time Trials, bringing back silver with a mere three seconds from capturing the gold medal.

As he continues to train hard in preparation for the Annual Holy Saturday Cross Country Cycling Classic Quiroz is now participating as a senior rider. He is confident that the over thirty hours of intense training he puts in each week will pay off as he competes with Belize's top cyclists as well as with international riders who will be participating in the race.

In an interview with the STAR Newspaper, Quiroz informed that he intends to "fly" through the twin towns of Santa Elena and San Ignacio to the cheers of the proud residents propelling him on the return journey to the finish line in Belize City.

We take this opportunity to wish Oscar all the very best of luck in his bid to be crowned the 2013 Cross Country Cycling Champion of Belize.

Apart from providing much needed employment in the village during the construction phase, the new facility is expected to benefit residents, especially students of Arenal, as more computers will be made available to the community while access to the internet will be significantly increased.

Nervous tension among family members is high this week, so don't be surprised if household members start quarreling. It is best to keep them apart most of the if you can. In the evenings, encourage them to talk about what's bothering them. You may be feeling a bit bored and discouraged, but forget about it by keeping busy. Lucky numbers: 27, 43, 68.

GEMINI:

May 22 to June 21

Information gleaned this week might not be totally accurate. Someone may be repeating gossip or making stories up out of whole cloth. Listen if you want, but don't pass along anything you hear unless you know for a fact that it is true. Your workload might be especially heavy and you might have a deadline, so you have a ready excuse not to pay any attention! Lucky numbers: 02, 39, 91.

CANCER:

June 22 to July 23

Pessimism over money matters may plague you this week. Perhaps a desired increase in income hasn't materialized, or you have been hoping to make a particular purchase that you still can't quite afford. This might be the time to put your ingenuity to work and come up with a contingency plan to earn the money you need. You will be able to find good opportunities. It beats waiting! Lucky numbers: 10, 54, 77.

LEO:

July 24 to August 21

You may be a bit on edge emotionally this week. You are likely to feel less self-confident than usual, and you also might be a bit bored. In addition, you might have an exceedingly oppressive and tedious task that needs doing. Try easing the stress by listening to music and taking frequent breaks. Treat yourself to a good lunch. You won't help anyone if you work yourself to a frazzle! Lucky numbers: 22, 35, 59.

VIRGO:

August 22 to September 21

Low biorhythms may have you feeling less than your usual self. Your mind may not be quite as quick as it usually is, and you may go through the week in a bit of a fog, possibly reflecting on the past. This isn't quite as aimless as it sounds. You might want to jot down your memories and reflections. They could shed light on something that's going on with you now. Lucky numbers: 05, 56, 88.

LIBRA:

September 22 to October 23

Frustrating delays in completing a project might cause you to doubt your skills. Be careful not to fall into this trap. There is nothing wrong with your skills. Take a good long look at what you are doing and try to discern where it got hung up. Worries about money may cause you to consider postponing an activity that means a lot to you. Don't. Use your ingenuity to work it out. Lucky numbers: 14, 60, 72.

SCORPIO:

October 24 to November 21

Even though you are likely to wake up feeling energetic and enthusiastic, your mood may sink a little when you think about all you need to do. It may be time to question whether you should make some significant changes. Are the walls closing in on you? If so, perhaps you should look for an opportunity that gives you more freedom of movement or perhaps gets you outside part of the time. Lucky numbers: 32, 47, 95.

SAGITTARIUS:

November 22 to December 21

An increased awareness of subtle undercurrents may have you feeling a bit disconcerted this week. You could experience clairvoyant or telepathic abilities you didn't know you had. As you usually like to be down to Earth and realistic, this may throw you for a loop, but try to flow with it. Reality isn't necessarily limited to what is perceived by the usual five senses! Lucky numbers: 16, 28, 74.

CAPRICORN:

December 22 to January 20

The desire to perform a service of some kind could attract you to group activities this week. You might attend a meeting of a group you aren't yet familiar with, and you could feel like a fifth wheel. Take heart! You will catch on soon, and the people in the group are likely to take to you. Your insights should prove valuable to them, and they will be quick to notice that! Lucky numbers: 09, 26, 97.

AQUARIUS:

January 21 to February 19

Your day could be worrisome and stressful. Your workload may be especially heavy and you could be putting in some long hours. Relations with others might also be a bit tense. Ease the stress by playing music and take frequent breaks. Have a good meal at lunchtime and then take a walk. Things are likely to be a lot more laid back tomorrow! Lucky numbers: .

PISCES:

February 20 to March 21

This week you are likely to feel rather bored, restless, and frustrated with the way your life is going now. You have responsibilities that need meeting, yet you have other projects that interest you a lot more than mundane tasks. As a result, you might find yourself growing a bit impatient with those around you. Don't take your frustrations out on others! Remember, "This, too, shall pass." Lucky numbers: 37, 40, 83.

Pope Francis Warns Church Could Become 'Compassionate NGO'

Pope Francis has warned the Catholic Church would become "a compassionate NGO" without spiritual renewal.

In a Sistine Chapel Mass with cardinals on his first day as Church leader, the pontiff said: "If we do not confess to Christ, what would we be?"

"We would end up a compassionate NGO. What would happen would be like when children make sand castles and then it all falls down."

Francis is the first Latin American - and the first Jesuit - Pope.

The BBC's David Willey, in Rome, says the 76-year-old has already been swift to stamp his style on the papacy.

Pope Francis is regarded as a doctrinal conservative, but he is also seen as a potential force for reform of the Vatican bureaucracy, analysts say.

On Wednesday night, Pope Francis endeared himself to the crowds in St Peter's Square - and underlined his reputation for humility - when he asked them to bless him before blessing them in return from the balcony of the basilica.

The Vatican's account of his first hours in the top job on Thursday also emphasised Pope Francis's humility, describing how he shunned a special car and security detail provided to take him to the Vatican, travelling instead on a bus with the other cardinals.

Pope Francis: "I would like all of us... to have the courage to walk in the presence of God"

Following his first outing as pope to the Rome basilica on Thursday, Francis went back to the clergy house in a city centre side street where he had been staying ahead of the conclave that elected him on Wednesday.

"He packed his bags and then he went to pay the bill for his room so as to set a good example," said Vatican spokesman Father Federico Lombardi.

He also broke tradition by remaining standing to receive cardinals' acts of homage after his election, instead of sitting in the papal throne, Father Lombardi said.

On Friday, Pope Francis will meet all the cardinals, including those aged over 80 who did not take part in the conclave.

On Saturday he will meet the world's media at a special papal audience, an opportunity perhaps to set out some of his global vision, says the BBC's James Robbins in Rome.

A visit to his predecessor Benedict XVI at his retreat at Castel Gandolfo outside Rome is also planned, but will not take place in the next couple of days, Father Lombardi said.

The visit to Benedict is important, correspondents say, as the existence of a living retired pope has prompted fears of a possible rival power.

Francis will be installed officially in an inauguration Mass on Tuesday 19 March, the Vatican added.

STAR HUMOR

Almost Too Late

All the passengers are seated on a plane out on the tarmac and the stewardess announces “we’re just waiting for the pilots.”

The passengers look out the window and see two men, dressed as pilots walking towards the plane. Both men are using guide dogs and appear to be blind. There are murmurs among the passengers, and some believe it is a joke.

The men board the plane and go into the cockpit. More concerned murmurs and uneasy chuckles from the passengers. The plane taxis normally to the runway and begins its takeoff. As passengers look out the window they realize they are nearing the end of the runway. The entire passenger cabin begins screaming but the plane lifts off just before the end of the runway. The passengers calm down and chuckle to themselves.

In the cockpit, the pilot turns to his copilot and says “you know, one day those people are gonna scream too late and we’re all gonna die!”

On The Stairway To Heaven

On day a redhead, a brunette, and a blonde were on their way to heaven.

God told them the stairs to heaven were 1,000 steps and on every step he was going to tell them a joke. If they laughed they would not be able to get to heaven.

So the redhead made it to the 45th step and laughed.

The brunette made it to the 200th step and laughed.

But the blonde made it to the 999th step and laughed even before god told his joke.

God asked “Why did you laugh I haven’t even told the joke yet”

The blonde said “I know I just now got the first one!!!”

Early HIV Drugs 'Functionally Cure About One In Ten'

By: James Gallagher
Health and science reporter, BBC News

Rapid treatment after HIV infection may be enough to "functionally cure" about a 10th of those diagnosed early, say researchers in France.

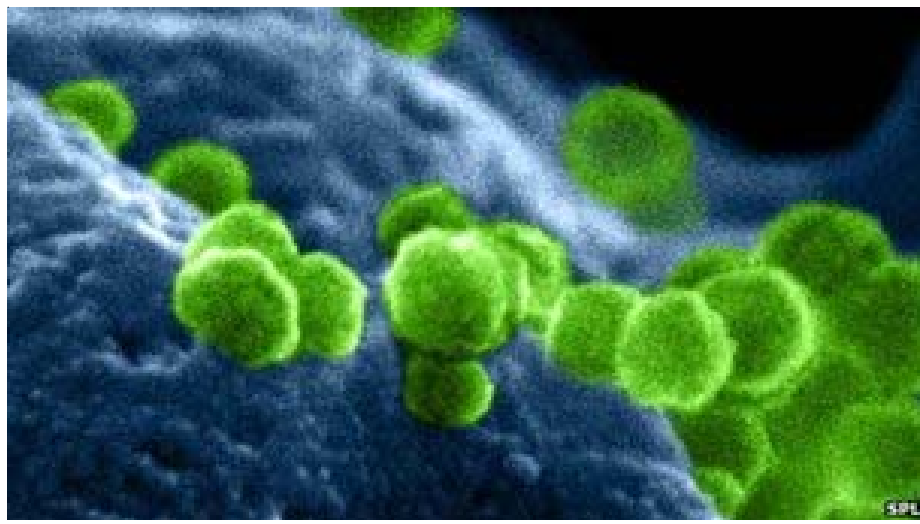

They have been analysing 14 people who stopped therapy, but have since shown no signs of the virus resurging.

It follows reports of a baby girl being effectively cured after very early treatment in the US.

However, most people infected with HIV do not find out until the virus has fully infiltrated the body.

The group of patients, known as the Visconti cohort, all started treatment within 10 weeks of being infected.

They stuck to a course of antiretroviral drugs for three years, on average, but then stopped.

HIV bursting out of a white blood cell it has hijacked

The drugs keep the virus only in check, they cannot eradicate it from its hiding places inside the immune system.

Normally, when the drugs stop, the virus bounces back.

This has not happened in the Visconti patients. Some have been able to control HIV levels for a decade.

Dr Asier Saez-Cirion, from the Institute Pasteur in Paris, said: "Most individuals who follow the same treatment will not control the infection, but there are a few of them who will."

He said 5-15% of patients may be functionally cured, meaning they no longer needed drugs, by attacking the virus soon after infection.

"They still have HIV, it is not eradication of HIV, it is a kind of remission of the infection."

Their latest study, in the journal PLoS Pathogens, analysed what happened to the immune system of the patients.

Early treatment may limit the number of unassailable HIV hideouts that are formed. However, the researchers said it was "unclear" why only some patients were functionally cured.

Dr Andrew Freedman, a reader in infectious diseases at Cardiff University School of Medicine, said the findings were "certainly interesting".

"The presumption is that they've started treatment very early and the virus hasn't spread to so many of the long-term reservoirs and that's why it works."

"Whether they'll control it forever, or whether it'll be for a number of years and subsequently they will progress and the virus will reappear, we don't know."

However, he cautioned that many patients would be diagnosed much later than in this study.

China Confirms Li Keqiang As Premier

China's leaders have named Li Keqiang premier, placing him at the helm of the world's second-largest economy.

Mr Li, who already holds the number two spot in the Communist Party, takes over from Wen Jiabao.

Mr Li was elected for a five-year term but, like his predecessor, would be expected to spend a decade in office.

On Thursday, Xi Jinping was confirmed by legislators as the new president, completing the transition of power from Hu Jintao.

Li Keqiang's widely-signalled elevation was confirmed by 3,000 legislators at the National People's Congress, the annual parliament session, in Beijing, by 2,940 votes of 2,949 cast.

As premier, he will oversee a large portfolio of domestic affairs, managing economic challenges, environmental woes and China's urbanisation drive.

The appointments seal the shift from one generation of leaders to the next. A raft of vice-premiers and state councillors will be named on Saturday, before the NPC closes on Sunday.

Mr Li, 57, who is seen as close to outgoing leader Hu Jintao, speaks fluent English and has a PhD in economics.

Mr Li, the son of an official in Anhui, is a fluent English speaker

He has called for a more streamlined government, eliminating some ministries while boosting the size of others.

The son of a local official in Anhui province, he became China's youngest provincial governor when he was tasked to run Henan.

But his time there was marked by a scandal involving the spread of HIV through contaminated blood.

Mr Li is expected to end the NPC with a press conference on Sunday, given by Wen Jiabao for the past decade.

On Thursday, Xi Jinping's move was approved by 2,952 votes to one, with three abstentions.

Hours later, US President Barack Obama called both to congratulate him and raise concerns over ongoing issues, including cyber hacking and North Korea.

"Both leaders agreed on the value of regular high-level engagement to expand co-operation and co-ordination," a White House statement said.

Mr Obama is sending both Treasury Secretary Jacob Lew and Secretary of State John Kerry to Beijing in coming days, in an apparent bid to reach out to the new administration.

In an editorial, state-run Global Times said Mr Xi and his colleagues needed to show powerful leadership to unite society.

"China cannot stop developing or fighting corruption. Social unity is the key to how China can stand against complex international affairs," it said.

Brazil Outrage Over Sao Paulo Cyclist's Lost Arm

A road collision in Brazil has caused outrage after police said a motorist drove off with a cyclist's severed arm attached to his vehicle.

The driver, who later turned himself in, told Sao Paulo police that he had dumped the limb in a stream.

The arm has not been recovered but doctors believe it could have been reattached, police told local media.

The cyclist - a window-cleaner on his way to work - is said to be in a stable condition in hospital.

The accident that saw the cyclist's arm torn off took place on Sunday morning on Avenida Paulista, one of Sao Paulo's busiest streets.

'Difficult to find'

The authorities say the driver, a 22-year old student, will be charged with attempted murder and driving while under the influence of alcohol. However, they haven't yet decided how to charge him for the disposal of the arm.

The student says the arm fell into the car after the collision.

The motorist's lawyer, Cassio Paoletti, has told BBC Brasil he denies the attempted murder accusation and that his client did not stop for fear of the reactions of witnesses.

"If he had stayed, they would have killed the boy. For instance, the police station was surrounded by hundreds of people who verbally abused and threw cans at my client's father, who's a 60-year-old man," Mr Paoletti said, adding he would press for serious bodily harm charges.

A policeman told the BBC the case was still under investigation, but the driver had admitted to throwing the arm into the stream.

"It has dirty, murky waters, so it might be difficult to find it," he said, adding that the man was being questioned about the details.

Police say the motorist was on his way back from a night out when his car hit the window-cleaner.

After the accident, he reportedly drove a friend home and discarded the arm, before turning himself in.

A number of cyclists gathered outside the police district where the driver was being questioned to protest.

Cycle activists have been campaigning for more safety on the city's streets for months.
