armed men stormed into a private dwelling house of one of the proprietors of the hotel located about 500 yards behind the establishment.

The assailants, both of dark complexion, wearing dark clothing and with rags tied over their faces, reportedly attacked the female home owner in the laundry room. The lady was reportedly grabbed by the neck in a choke hold. During the struggle as she began grasping for breath, the face of one of the attackers was exposed and this was when one of them said that they would have to kill her because she saw the face of one of the assailants.

In an effort apparently to strangle her, a cloth was tied around her neck. They also tied her feet together, removed the jewelry she was wearing and left her on the floor inside the laundry room. They then entered the main dwelling from whence they stole a silver and black Samsung laptop computer, a grey "Blu" brand cell phone without sim card, two black female watches, a silver female watch as well as about twenty dollars in assorted coins. They then ran out of the building. The victim was hospitalized for a few days at the Western Regional Hospital in Belmopan.

The fleeing assailants were reportedly chased on foot by a male owner of the hotel who pursued them through adjacent communities. The police did not arrive on time and the assailants eventually escaped.

The police informed that about two and a half hours after the incident, a team of policemen visited a farm in the Trapaiche area of Santa Elena where they came upon Neal and Lamb sitting on a wooden bench under a tree. Upon seeing the police they ran off and disappeared into nearby bushes. In the area, on top of the bench, the police came upon a silver and black Samsung laptop computer, a grey "Blu" brand cell phone without sim card, two black female watches, a silver female watch, seven gold looking chains, five silver looking chains, four silver bracelets and assorted pair of fashion earrings all of which were positively identified by the victim as being her property.

The items are now at the police station labelled as evidence while the nationwide manhunt continues for the two suspects.

Police believe that it is only a matter of time before the long

Your Weekly Horoscope and Lucky Numbers

ARIES:

March 22 to April 20

You may be frustrated this week. An anticipated romantic encounter may be postponed or canceled. There is no reason to consider it a major setback in the relationship. If you feel doubt and uncertainty, it's likely for other reasons. You're agitated and not in a good place to make any sweeping judgments. Let your head clear for a few days and then plan the next steps. Lucky numbers: 08, 25, 89.

TAURUS:

April 21 to May 21

You could feel a bit low this week due to disappointment in someone important to you. It could be that a mentor no longer supports you or perhaps an authority figure has shown his or her colors. Rather than casting about for a new role model, why not follow the path that you know is right for you? You are experienced enough now not to need anyone else to lead the way. Lucky numbers: 02, 55, 70.

GEMINI:

May 22 to June 21

You are likely changing your mind about something that has been important to you. Perhaps you are questioning your job, career path, or choice of a mate. Confusion may dominate your thoughts today. Don't expect to arrive at any concrete answers by day's end. This is a situation that will only be resolved with time. Try to be patient. Lucky numbers: 18, 33, 59.

CANCER:

June 22 to July 23

Romance is in the air. Alas, it seems to rain down on everyone but you. You must have put on your romance-repellent raincoat before leaving the house this morning. Don't fret. Your time will come. Try to focus your passion on a creative endeavor. If you have been thinking about trying your hand at writing or painting, do it now. Lucky numbers: 10, 21, 65.

LEO:

July 24 to August 21

Your creativity is at an all-time high, so take advantage of it. This would be an ideal day to paint or write. Even though you consider your talents well below amateur status, you may be surprised by what you are able to produce. Ignore your strict internal editor and work for the pure pleasure of creating. You will be delighted with the results. Lucky numbers: 50, 71, 92.

VIRGO:

August 22 to September 21

Your inspiration and creativity are high this week. If you have been thinking about taking up painting or poetry, this would be an ideal day to get started. Make sure your perfectionism doesn't get in the way of your creative urges. You can be a critical editor. For now, don't worry about the end product. If you enjoy the creative process, the end result will reflect your joy. Lucky numbers: 04, 29, 68.

LIBRA:

September 22 to October 23

It's bad enough having too many cooks in the kitchen, but when those cooks argue not only about how to cook the meal but also about how to design the kitchen, you know you have trouble on your hands. Tempers are likely to flare. Everyone has an opinion about how you should decorate your home. Whoever pays the mortgage gets to make the final decisions. That should settle it. Lucky numbers: 09, 46, 66.

SCORPIO:

October 24 to November 21

Your self-confidence is at a low point these days, and this is making you especially vulnerable. It is likely that a recent confrontation with a close friend has you worrying about the overall health of the relationship. With all kindness you are overreacting. It's likely that your mate feels just as troubled as you right now. Why not meet halfway? Lucky numbers: 30, 44, 87.

SAGITTARIUS:

November 22 to December 21

You may feel some frustration over your perceived inability to reach an important milestone in your career. It is possible that you only need to reevaluate the benchmarks you have set in order to see that you have made more progress than you thought. Remember, ultimately, the time it takes you to reach a goal matters less than the fact that you reach it. Lucky numbers: 01, 16, 90.

CAPRICORN:

December 22 to January 20

Sometimes you can be too passive and let others trample all over you. Your lack of ego is admirable, but only up to a point. Why let others take credit for your ideas? There could be a situation where you feel compelled to speak up. Protect your rights and defend yourself against an unethical person intent on downplaying your contribution. Hold your ground and you will be vindicated. Lucky numbers: 22, 75, 88.

AQUARIUS:

January 21 to February 19

An acquaintance could be spreading unfounded rumors. Don't take anything you hear this week at face value. Get all the facts before drawing conclusions. Equipment being installed or acting up adds to the confusion. If the situation isn't so frustrating, it would be comical. Take deep breaths throughout the day. Tomorrow things will be on a more even keel. Lucky numbers: 07, 20, 78.

PISCES:

February 20 to March 21

A longtime friend may become something more this week. It could be that there has always been a certain spark between you, but you haven't been able to acknowledge it. Make extra sure that the time is right. You don't want to hurt anyone else's feelings as you begin to explore the new aspects of this old relationship. Lucky numbers: 05, 49, 76.

STAR HUMOR

Cheap Flower Delivery

A new business was opening and one of the owner's friends wanted to send flowers for the occasion.

They arrived at the new business site and the owner read the card. It said "Rest in Peace".

The owner was angry and called the florist to complain.

After he had told the florist of the obvious mistake and how angry he was,

The florist said:

"Sir, I'm really sorry for the mistake, but rather than getting angry you should imagine this: somewhere there is a funeral taking place today, and they have flowers with a note saying 'Congratulations on your new location'."

No Luck At The Horse Track

Marlon was sitting quietly reading the STAR Newspaper one morning, peacefully enjoying himself, when his wife sneaks up behind him and wacks him on the back of his head with a huge frying pan.

Marlon yelled out, "What was that for?"

His wife screamed at him, "What was that piece of paper in your pants pocket with the name Marylou written on it?"

Thinking for a second, Marlon decided to say, "Oh honey, remember two weeks ago when I went to the horse races?, Marylou was the name of one of the horse I bet on."

His Wife looked all satisfied and goes off to work around the house.

Three days later he is once again sitting in his chair reading and she repeats the frying pan swatting.

Marlon screamed in pain, "What the hell was that for this time?"

"Your horse called."

Text Messages

Husband sent a text to wife at night,

"Hi babe I will get late, please try and wash all my dirty clothes and make sure you prepare my favourite dish before I return."

He sent another text, "Babe I forgot to tell you that I got an increase in my salary at the end of the month I'm getting you a new car"

She text back, "OMG really?"

Husband replied, "No I just wanted to make sure you got my first message."

We're Going To Be Three

A newlywed wife said to her husband when he returned from work, "I have great news for you. Pretty soon, we're going to be three in this house instead of two."

Her husband ran to her with a smile on his face and delight in his eyes.

He was glowing of happiness and kissing his wife when she said, "I'm glad that you feel this way since tomorrow morning, my mother moves in with us."

Ten Ways To Ruin A Relationship

1. Be critical. Even "constructive" criticism can make your partner defensive and reduce the feeling of safety in a relationship. Being harsh and judgmental when angry can trigger a "flight or fight response."

2. Insist your partner be exactly the same as you. Hendrix and LaKelly Hunt say "absolute compatibility" is an express route to a dull relationship. If you insist your partner have the same feelings and perceptions as you do, it can lead to despair and misery.

3. Flee from intimacy. If you habitually avoid being physically or emotionally close with your partner through escaping into work, hobbies, television, or other activities, you risk creating a divide between you and your partner that may become impossible to breach.

4. Play the blame game. Using "you" language when upset will make your partner put up their defenses. When your goal is to communicate in a way that fosters intimacy, use statements that begin with "I feel" instead.

5. Bargain. Hendrix and LaKelly Hunt say that both "giving conditionally and receiving cautiously" erode relationships. They warn against doing something for a partner only when you want something in exchange.

6. Be casual about romance. No relationship can be spontaneously joyful forever. Once the initial excitement of a new romance wears off, some couples think their relationship is over and give up trying. They risk missing out on experiencing a deeper kind of love.

7. Focus on the negative. If you constantly think and talk about your partner's flaws it can amplify your discontent. Hendrix points out that a paradox of most forms of couples therapy is that you spend your sessions complaining about your partner—something that can actually be detrimental to your relationship.

8. Refuse to listen. Thinking you are the right all the time and engaging in a one-way monologue is a great way to end up in a relationship...of one, warn LaKelly Hunt and Hendrix.

9. Hide your needs. If you don't express what you need and want to your partner, you'll constantly feel deprived and frustrated. Hendrix and LaKelly Hunt say it's crucial share "the things that truly touch your heart."

10. Expect a fairytale romance. Fairy tales are just that and eventually we all have to come down to earth. Demanding the fantasy go on forever prevents your partner from ever being their authentic self and fosters resentment and distance.

US Holds Back Recognition For Venezuela's Nicolas Maduro

The US government is refusing to recognise Venezuela's President-elect Nicolas Maduro's victory in disputed elections in Venezuela.

Secretary of State John Kerry said the US was not yet ready to validate the results of Sunday's poll.

Mr Maduro's narrow victory has been challenged by the opposition leader, Henrique Capriles.

Mr Capriles is insisting on a vote-by-vote recount and has now submitted a formal request for one.

However, the National Electoral Council in Venezuela has so far refused to order one, and the Supreme Court said on Wednesday that there was no legal basis for it.

Mr Kerry has supported a recount.

"Obviously, if there are huge irregularities we are going to have serious questions about the viability of that government," he told members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Mr Maduro responded by accusing Washington of interfering in Venezuela's internal affairs.

He insisted: "We don't care about your recognition."

"We have chosen to be free, and

President-elect Nicolas Maduro, Left, Is Rejecting Henrique Capriles's Calls For A Recount

we are going to be free with or without you."

Anti-US card

He added: "The US intervention in Venezuela in recent months, and particularly during the election campaign, has been brutal, vulgar."

The official count indicates Mr Maduro won 50.8% of votes to Mr Capriles's 49.0%

Analysts say there is nothing new in Venezuela's official rhetoric against the United States.

The late President Hugo Chavez frequently criticised what he called US imperialism.

His chosen successor, Mr Maduro, appears to be following in his footsteps.

Shortly after the death of Mr Chavez, Venezuelan officials said they would set up an inquiry to investigate suspicions that he had been murdered by foreign agencies.

Oil Minister Rafael Ramirez told the BBC that the United States and Israel were to blame for Mr Chavez's death.

For his part, Mr Maduro said that one day a scientific commission would prove that Mr Chavez's cancer had been "injected by imperialist forces".

He has also accused the US government of orchestrating and funding the post-election protests in co-ordination with Venezuela's opposition whom he describes as the bourgeoisie, the oligarchs.

Venezuela and the United States have not had ambassadors in each other's capitals since 2010.

NOTICE TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

The Sacred Heart College located in San Ignacio, Cayo District, has made an application to the Central Building Authority for a waiver of fees in connection with the construction of an auditorium. The conditions for requesting the waiver is that Sacred Heart College is a state- aided educational institution, the auditorium is not a commercial endeavor but will be used for educational and local community activities and sporting events, and its potential to serve as a hurricane shelter.

The Central Building Authority agrees to the waiver as a support of the conditions stated above and will proceed should no objections be put forward.

Mexico Drops Drug Link Charges Against General Angeles

Prosecutors in Mexico say they have dropped the charges against retired general Tomas Angeles Dauahare.

Gen Angeles, a former deputy defence minister, had been accused of having links with a drug cartel.

Prosecutors said they could not corroborate allegations made by two witnesses against the general.

Shortly after the announcement, Gen Angeles was released from the maximum-security jail where he had been awaiting trial.

He had been facing charges of "organised crime to further drug-trafficking", which he had denied all along.

Two people in a witness protection programme, known under the code names of Jennifer and Mateo, had accused him of links with the Beltran Leyva cartel.

'False testimony'

They said Gen Angeles was tipping off cartel members about police and army operations against them in exchange for money,

Prosecutors said that they had found no convincing evidence "corroborating the testimony of the protected witnesses and no proof whatsoever which would confirm the allegations made by Jennifer and Mateo".

The Army Has Played A Key Role In Mexico's War On Organised Crime

Jennifer was the same witness who had also accused the former anti-drugs tsar Noe Ramirez Mandujano of links with the Beltran Leyva cartel.

Mr Ramirez was cleared of the charges on Monday and released earlier on Wednesday after more than four years in prison.

The judge in that case asked for Jennifer to be investigated on suspicion of giving false testimony.

Both Mr Ramirez and Gen Angeles were investigated as part of Operation Clean-up, an attempt by former president Felipe Calderon to eradicate corruption within the Mexican security forces.

Felipe Calderon brought in the army to fight drug cartels when he took office in 2006 and promised to be tough on any officers who were found to accept bribes by drug gangs.

But critics say drug gangs would falsely accuse officers to get rid of those who stood in their way.

It is expected that this initiative will drive more Canadians to Belize. The group of journalists and tour operators will be in the country from April 15-20 and will commence their FAM Tour in San Pedro Ambergris. They will be travelling to Hopkins Village, Mountain Pine Ridge Area and inland Cayo and will be doing inland activities. Belize is expected to get premium exposure in top Canadian news outlets.

In January of this year, BTB attended Toronto's Ultimate Travel Show; a consumer targeted show and a series of road shows done in collaboration with LATA Canada in Vancouver, Calgary and Toronto. In the history of working with the Canadian market, this is the first time the BTB is undertaking an initiative of this magnitude.

About the Belize Tourism Board
The Belize Tourism Board (BTB) is a statutory body within the Belize Ministry of Tourism and Culture, and it is governed by a Board of Directors appointed by the Minister of Tourism and Culture. The BTB works in conjunction with members of the private sector - including the Belize Hotel Association, Belize Tourism Industry Association and Belize National Tour Operators Association – and is dedicated to building tourism in the most economically and environmentally sustainable manner. As a part of its responsibilities, the BTB promotes Belize as a premier tourism destination to both in-country and international consumers. Among its outreach to the international travel market, the BTB markets the country's unique attractions to travellers, members of the travel trade industry and media outlets in key markets.

The BTB is also dedicated to developing and implementing tourism programs that will help strengthen and grow the Belizean tourism industry; promote good destination stewardship; and instil high quality standards for accommodations and travel experiences. # Wade Busted With Twenty Eight Pounds Of Weed on Wednesday, April 17, 2013, a team of officers on mobile patrol on the George Price Highway in Santa Elena Town intercepted a green Toyota Camry bearing Belize City license plates # BC-C-42803 in the vicinity of Three Flags Super Store.

According to police, the occupants of the car were informed that a search was to be conducted inside the car; however nothing incriminating was found. The strong scent of marijuana prompted the officers to inform the duo that the car was to be escorted to the San Ignacio police station where a thorough search of the vehicle would be conducted. Realizing that they had been caught, the driver attempted to escape from police but was quickly subdued. In the commotion however, the single male Hispanic passenger inside the vehicle was able to run away from the scene and made good his escape.

At the station, the full examination of the green Toyota Camry revealed the name of the suspected Guatemalan national who managed to escape from the officers. The Guatemalan name was written down on a day pass provide by the Guatemalan immigration as being Nery Hunberto

The 26 Parcels Of Weed
Leon of neighboring Melchor de Mencos in Guatemala.

While conducting the search on the car, police reportedly uncovered 26 parcels wrapped tightly with black plastic bags inside the back passenger door panels. The drugs were subsequently showed to the driver of the car, Barry Lee Wade, 33, Belizean laborer of # 25 Maya Street in San Ignacio Town. Wade was informed of the offence of drug trafficking and placed under arrest.

The suspected marijuana, when weighed, tipped the scale at a staggering 12, 700.59 grams (28 pounds). Wade was then formally arrested and charged with the offence of drug trafficking.

Wade was arraigned before magistrate Narda Morgan on Thursday, April 18, 2013, where the charge of drug trafficking was read to him. Followed by a not guilty plea by Wade. Prosecutor George

Gomez objected to the granting of bail and in concurring with the prosecution's request magistrate Morgan proceeded to remand Wade to the central prison in Hattieville until Monday, August 12, 2013.
