To All Town Council Candidates

It's election time again and I guess we are going to have to put up with all of the aspiring councillors, and their supporters, painting our towns red and blue.

I can't say that I speak for every single person in our twin towns but I'm sure that I speak for the vast majority when I say that we don't like them doing that. We have two beautiful towns and we resent them splashing their names, party, and other graffiti all over them.

When will these want-to-be town councillors realise that we are not stupid morons and we are not influenced by red or blue paint. No, if you want our vote, this is what you have to do. You go to BRC Printing in Benque and you print 6,000 flyers. On the flyers you put a picture of you and your family and you tell us about yourself. You tell us what you are going to do for these twin towns and you tell us how you are going to do it.

Then you tell your supporters to throw away their paint brushes and paint pots and instead, deliver the flyers to every household in the twin towns.

Then perhaps, you will get more votes!

Benque Viejo Neighborhood Watch Boxing Day Event

Contributed By:

Gene Bruce and Sydellie Leslie

There was once a very noble deed. A deed so noble it saved Christmas Eve.....I mean boxing day. For many years the neighborhood watch program has helped the community in simple but effective ways. And this year, as many years before since 2008, the entertainment & message provided touched the hearts of many individuals who attended and even those who didn't. It was not by the gifts or simply the event, but the gesture given. It was beyond what the eye can see; it was something only the heart could feel. This event was a premeditated gesture. The coordination for the event and line up for sponsors started as early as October. Captain Samuel Bruce started visiting the sponsors and reminding them of the importance of preparation; for dreams don't work unless you do. Although as we all may know 2014 wasn't the most fruitful year for many but the sponsors still managed to give what they could. Some gave gifts and items for the event and some monetary contributions.

As the kids ran around that September, Captain Samuel Bruce filled in anything that was missing to make sure that the event would still take place. The community policing unit Benque Cpl. Joshua McKoy decided to lend a helping hand and offering the assistance of his eager youth cadets. They could clearly see what was being done and were more than happy to help. But we must keep in mind that the zone 4 neighborhood watch program consisted of more than just the captain, the police and the sponsors. It consisted of individuals willing to work to make a difference. Although the event wasn't set to start until 2pm, the volunteers arrived at 9 am that day to start setup and while some volunteers were setting up, two were driving around town giving announcements about the event, not that they had to everyone knew it would take place. The announcements were more like a Christmas carol reminding you Christmas was here even though you already knew.

People started entering the spacious Sam's community Park; some entered the stone building waiting for the event to start admiring the prizes and music, others with their children entered the yard their eyes wondered around; some to the football fields, some to the volleyball field, and some to the play ground equipment. There were hundreds of prizes waiting to be won. This year was different though we had a special guest: a Mr. Kurt Hicks who retired from the US Air force. He wanted to volunteer this year, along with the dynamic MC Amin Avilez, DJ, football coaches, and more; Fun games, for not only the kids but adults were provided as well as Free juice, a thousand ideals, neighborhood watch calendars with emergency number were given. Since it was a fun and busy event these were appreciated openly by the neighborhood citizens. While everyone was having fun the hungry didn't have to go far to find rice & beans with chicken, pizza, and soft drinks that were readily available right inside the building. Everyone was having fun making memories they all enjoyed together as families. Pictures were taken to capture the memories made. Many people attended and enjoyed the effort that was made to produce this event. Special thanks to all who helped what you did gave meaning to the event itself, "the act of giving" It is when we come together and create something that it becomes truly beautiful, and our problems can be solved!

NO Alcohol was served at this event!!

ABC'S In A Relationship

A wife asks a husband, "how would you describe me?"

Husband: "ABCDEFGHIIJK"

Wife: "What does that mean?"

Husband: "Adorable, beautiful, cute, delightful, elegant, fashionable, gorgeous and hot."

Wife: "Aw, thank you, but what about IJK?"

Husband: I'm Just Kidding.

Cooking Eggs

A wife was making a breakfast of fried eggs for her husband. Suddenly her husband burst into the kitchen. "Careful. CAREFUL! Put in some more butter! Oh my GOD! You're cooking too many at once. TOO MANY! Turn them! TURN THEM NOW! We need more butter. Oh my GOD! WHERE are we going to get MORE BUTTER? They're going to STICK! Careful."

"CAREFUL! I said be CAREFUL! You NEVER listen to me when you're cooking! Never! Turn them! Hurry up! Are you CRAZY? Have you LOST your mind? Don't forget to salt them. You know you always forget to salt them. Use the salt. USE THE SALT! THE SALT!"

The wife stared at him. "What the heck is wrong with you? You think I don't know how to fry a couple of eggs?"

The husband calmly replied, "I just wanted to show you what it feels like when I'm driving."

Cooking Eggs

Stopping to pick up my daughter at kindergarten, I found out that the topic of "Show and Tell" that day had been parents' occupations.

The teacher pulled me aside. Whispering, she advised, "You might want to explain a little bit more to your daughter what you do for a living."

I work as a training consultant and often conduct my seminars in motel conference rooms.

When I asked why, the teacher explained, "Your daughter told the class she wasn't sure what you did, but said you got dressed real pretty and went to work at motels."

What is acne? What causes acne? How to get rid of acne?

Acne, medically known as Acne Vulgaris, is a skin disease that involves the oil glands at the base of hair follicles. It commonly occurs during puberty when the sebaceous (oil) glands come to life - the glands are stimulated by male hormones produced by the adrenal glands of both males and females.

Acne is not dangerous, but can leave skin scars. Human skin has pores (tiny holes) which connect to oil glands located under the skin. The glands are connected to the pores via follicles - small canals. These glands produce Sebum, an oily liquid. The sebum carries dead skin cells through the follicles to the surface of the skin. A small hair grows through the follicle out of the skin. Pimples grow when these follicles get blocked, resulting in an accumulation of oil under the skin.

What is acne?

The word acne comes from the word acme meaning "the highest point," which comes from the Greek akme meaning "point" or "spot" - it was originally misspelt, with an 'n' rather than an 'm' in 1835.

Acne

Acne, medically known as Acne Vulgaris, is a skin disease that involves the oil glands at the base of hair follicles.

In humans, pimples tend to appear on the face, back, chest, shoulders and neck.

Acne, medically known as Acne Vulgaris, is a skin disease that involves the oil glands at the base of hair follicles.

Simply put - skin cells, sebum and hair can clump together into a plug, this plug gets infected with bacteria, resulting in a swelling. A pimple starts to develop when the plug begins to break down.

Scientists from the Washington University School of Medicine found that there are good and bad strains of bacteria that determine the severity and frequency of developing acne. They explained in the Journal of Investigative Dermatology (March 2013 issue) that not all acne bacteria trigger pimples - in fact, one strain they identified can help keep the skin pimple-free.

The types of pimples:

Whiteheads - remain under the skin and are very small

Blackheads - clearly visible, they are black and appear on the surface of the skin. Remember that a blackhead is not caused by dirt. Scrubbing your face vigorously when you see blackheads will not help

Papules - visible on the surface of the skin. They are small bumps, usually pink

Pustules - clearly visible on the surface of the skin. They are red at their base and have pus at the top

Nobules - clearly visible on the surface of the skin. They are large, solid pimples. They are painful and are embedded deep in the skin Cysts - clearly visible on the surface of the skin. They are painful, and are filled with pus. Cysts can easily cause scars.

How common is acne?

Hair follicle with acne

Human skin has pores (tiny holes) which connect to oil glands located under the skin. The glands are connected to the pores via follicles - small canals. These glands produce Sebum, an oily liquid. The sebum carries dead skin cells through the follicles to the surface of the skin.

Dermatologists (skin specialists) say that approximately three-quarters of 11 to 30 year-olds will get acne at some time. Acne can affect people of all races and all ages. It most commonly affects adolescents and young adults, although there are people in their fifties who still get acne.

Although acne affects both men and women, young men suffer from acne for longer - probably because testosterone, which is present in higher quantities in young men, can make acne worse.

What causes acne?

Nobody is completely sure what causes acne. Experts believe the primary cause is a rise in androgen levels - androgen is a type of hormone. Androgen levels rise when a human becomes an adolescent. Rising androgen levels make the oil glands under your skin grow; the enlarged gland produces more oil. Excessive sebum can break down cellular walls in your pores, causing bacteria to grow.

Some studies indicate that a susceptibility to acne could also be genetic. Some medications that contain androgen and lithium may cause acne. Greasy cosmetics may cause acne in some susceptible people. Hormone changes during pregnancy may cause acne either to develop for the first time, or to recur.

Your Weekly Horoscope and Lucky Numbers

ARIES:

March 22 to April 20

Aries people enter this New Year with great good fortune! You are the artisan of the zodiac. You're creative and you love to do anything with your hands. This year, your creative potential will be fantastic because you will discover lots of opportunities to express your artistic aptitudes. Count on a vacation. Love affairs, romance and playful, social excursions are guaranteed. In fact, a romance with someone different or from another culture is likely. You won't have to hide your light under a bushel because you will love the chance to have greater freedom of self-expression. A fun year ahead! Lucky numbers: 03, 34, 63.

TAURUS:

April 21 to May 21

Every Taurus is essentially a country squire, wishing they had acres of land where lambs gambled at play. Believe it or not, this year you can come closer to that dream than ever before because 2015 will be the best year to explore real-estate opportunities that you have had in over a decade. Everything to do with home and real estate will benefit you. This means you can buy, sell or improve and invest in your own existing home. By extrapolation, even your family life will become richer, and everyone will be happier and more mutually generous. The kids will get straight A's and no one will have cavities. Lucky numbers: 22, 56, 78.

GEMINI:

May 22 to June 21

This year your attitude to the world around you will be more generous; hence, others will respond to you more favourably. Likewise, your positive state of mind will encourage plans for the future that are larger and more expansive. It will bring you opportunities for courses or further training. You'll be involved with relatives and siblings. It's a great year for those who write, sell, teach or act because your communication skills will be tops! Jackie Gleason said, "If you have it and you know you have it, then you have it. If you have it but you don't know you have it, then you don't have it. If you don't have it but you think you have it, then you have it." Lucky numbers: 15, 27, 84.

CANCER

June 21 to July 21

This year you have the best chance in over a decade to boost your earnings. For some, this will be sizable; others will increase their assets or wealth indirectly; yet others, will feel richer because they buy goodies for themselves. But the end result will be the same: For some reason, you will, feel richer this year! You might also get a better job or a raise in your current job. You will certainly be working hard, that's a given. The essence of this astrological influence is this: You have a chance to actualize in your life what it is that you value. If it's money - then that is what you will attract. Lucky numbers: 06, 47, 73.

LEO:

July 24 to August 21

The last time you entered a New Year with Jupiter in your sign was in 2003. However, at that time, you were also giving up many things. Now, you're in a different stage of your life; and the good fortune of having Jupiter in your sign (which occurs only once every 12 years) is with you again! This blessing comes you only four or five times in your adult life, so this is a major deal. Use this to your advantage! People and resources will be drawn to you. Good fortune will come to you in many ways. In addition, this signals the beginning of a new 12-year cycle of growth when you will want to discover who you really are as a person. Lucky numbers: 32, 67, 97.

VIRGO:

August 22 to September 21

In the year ahead, you will explore the subtle, spiritual aspects of your life. Some of you might check out yoga, meditation or different philosophies and religions that impact your belief system. In the same way that you want to solidify your home base, in terms of where you live, you also want to solidify your inner world so that you have a warm feeling in your tummy. Around the time of your birthday this year, lucky Jupiter will enter your sign for the first time since 2004. When this happens, Jupiter will stay in Virgo for an entire year, which means you have much good luck ahead of you! You're on a roll. Plan on how to use this to your advantage. Lucky numbers: 24, 45, 87.

LIBRA:

September 22 to October 23

The year 2015 will be a popular year for you. This suits you perfectly because you are a social sign. You can expect to enjoy the company of others and enjoy warm friendships. In addition, many of you will become more involved with groups, clubs and associations. Discussions with others, especially if you share your hopes and dreams for the future with them, will benefit you. People will give you hot tips and good ideas. The key thing to remember this year is that all your interactions with others will benefit you, so it behooves you to be friendly. Offer to help others. Be sociable. Let others take you for lunch. Lucky numbers: 13, 36, 52.

SCORPIO:

October 24 to November 21

For the first time since 2003, lucky Jupiter is crossing the top of your chart. Basically, this happens only four or five times in your adult life, depending on how long you live. Jupiter augments and magnifies wherever it moves through your chart; and in your case, this year, it will augment and magnify your reputation among your peers. This could be due to a promotion, an award, a prize or some kind of special acknowledgement of your talents and efforts. In other words, you're the big winner! People will see you as being more successful. You might also travel more, in fact, this is a guarantee. Got your bag packed? Lucky numbers: 42, 76, 93.

SAGITTARIUS:

November 22 to December 21

Sagittarius is the traveller of the zodiac. You constantly want the thrill of new faces, new places, exciting adventure, and a chance to learn fascinating, thought-provoking ideas. Well, this is exactly what 2015 is going to offer you because your ruler, lucky Jupiter, will travel through the part of your chart that affects all of these things. Make big travel plans! Look for ways to explore opportunities in publishing, the media, medicine, the law and higher education. This is a great year to go back to school or further your studies in some way. Whatever you do will broaden your views on life. (You were never one to let gravity bring you down.) Lucky numbers: 18, 61, 89.

CAPRICORN:

December 22 to January 20

As you enter this year, the Sun, Mercury, Venus and Pluto will all be in your sign. (It's all about you.) However, the main blessing that you will notice in 2015 is that you will benefit from the wealth and resources of others. This means you might get an inheritance or money back from the government or gifts and goodies from others, or you might have a chance to use something that someone else owns. You will also benefit indirectly through your partner or someone else who becomes enriched with a bonus or increased wealth in some way. Obviously, this is the perfect year to go for a loan or a mortgage. Lucky numbers: 28, 44, 82.

AQUARIUS:

January 20 to February 18

Your great blessing in 2015 will be your closest friendships and partnerships. You can count on this. That's why this is a good year to marry or form new partnerships or working units. You will discover that others will help you out in many ways. This means this is definitely not be year to go it alone. Let others into your life. Consult experts. Many of you will also interact more, or form a new relationship with someone from a foreign country or a different culture. If you marry this year, it could be to someone who is slightly older or richer or more established. Almost everyone that you encounter on a close one-to-one basis will have a consciousness-expanding effect on you this year. (That's not quite the same thing as hair-raising.) Lucky numbers: 25, 60, 86.

PISCES:

February 20 to March 21

Not since 2003-2004, have you had the kind of opportunities to improve your job that you will have in 2015. Since this kind of blessing comes only perhaps four times in your adult life, you have to make the most of this! Make hay while the Sun shines! Not only will you improve your job this year, but you will find that whatever you do, in terms of your work, will give you a greater sense of fulfilment and joy. This could be due to better working conditions, a better job, better duties or a corner office with windows. In addition, this is a great year for you to improve your health. The only downside is all this benefit could mean weight gain. Oops. Time to let out another pleat in the shower curtain? Lucky numbers: 31, 64, 96.
